Sixth Discoverer Satellite Fired

VANDENBURG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—The sixth satellite-rocket in the trouble-plagued Discoverer series roared out toward space today.

In its nose was a capsule which the Air Force hopes to snatch from the air over Hawaii tomorrow—a needle-in-the-haystack feat never yet accomplished.

Today's highly-instrumented capsule carried no animals but is similar to the one expected to take monkeys into space later in the series.

The 78-foot rocket blasted away from its pad on the beach at 12:20 p.m. The weather was clear and sunny.

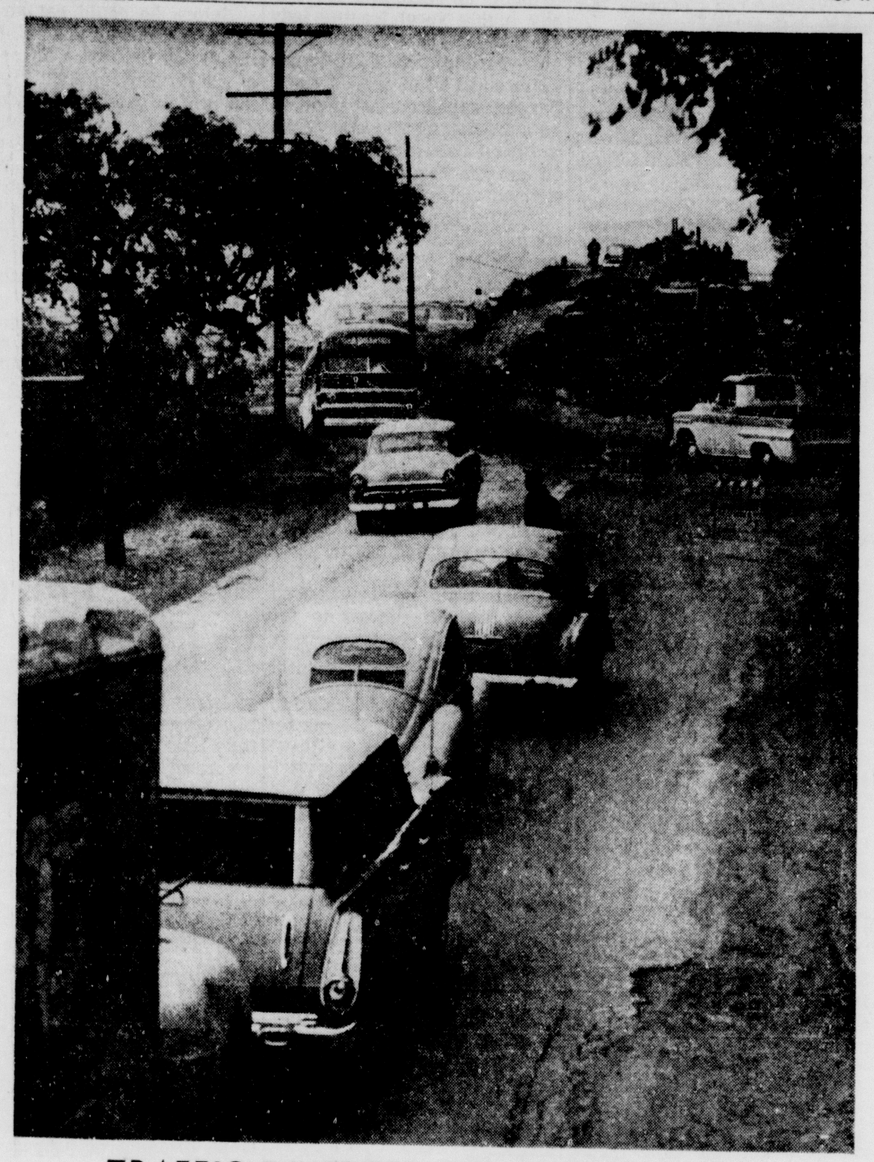

Its first stage, a medium-range Thor using a powerful new fuel successfully pioneered by Discoverer V, rose swiftly until almost out of sight, then arced southward toward an orbit around the earth's poles.

The new fuel, a kerosene called RJ-1, seemed noticeably less noisy than the standard JP-4 kerosene used in the first four Discoverer launchings.

Within two minutes the bird was beyond the range of binoculars.

The 19-foot second stage, all of which is designed to go into orbit, was supposed to take over five minutes after launch and kick the satellite into orbital speed.

The Air Force said it might be two or three hours before it can announce whether the rocket went into orbit. It was designed to encircle the globe once every 90 minutes.

TRAFFIC DIVERTED FOR BRIDGE ROAD

Traffic on Larkspur's Magnolia avenue was detoured today as O. C. Jones and Co. of Berkeley began knocking a "hump" out of the road preparatory to the extension of Magnolia avenue to connect with the new Bon Air Bridge. The bridge, completed last spring, remains isolated from the Larkspur side until the new street is completed. Photo was taken from Kentfield side of "hump." (Independent-Journal photo)

Planes Help Evacuate Quake Area

Eighty persons have been evacuated by helicopter from the earthquake-torn Madison River canyon to West Yellowstone, Mont., 4th Air Force headquarters reported at noon today.

One of two SA16 Albatross planes sent from Hamilton Air Force Base to fly the evacuees out of West Yellowstone has been recalled, announced 4th Air Force headquarters. Two helicopters have been ordered back to Stead Air Force Base near Reno, Nev., having completed their mission.

STILL AT SCENE

A "chopper" from Malmstrom Air Force Base at Great Falls, Mont., and one from Hill Air Force Base near Ogden, Utah, remain on the scene, along with several U.S. Forest Service 'copters.

Capt. A. S. Champion of Raphael Village, coordinator of the aerial rescue at West Yellowstone, was quoted by United Press International there as saying, "We now are looking only for stragglers and strugglers."

Captain Champion reported to Maj. John H. Mork, operations officer of the 41st Air Rescue Squadron, early today by radio that 40 persons evacuated by that time included 16 injured and nine dead.

NO RADIO CONTACT

Major Mork said radio contact was impossible during daylight hours and he had no later report on the number of dead and injured.

"Those on the scene estimated the dead would total 19 to 25, but that's only an estimate," he said.

The evacuees are being

8 Known Dead, But Higher Toll Feared

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. (AP)—About 300 persons have been rescued from the still trembling earth of quake-rocked Madison Canyon of southwest Montana, the U.S. Forest Service announced today. A spokesman for the Army Corps of Engineers said all danger is past at Hebgen Dam, damaged by the quakes.

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. (AP) — Earthquake-born avalanches still trapped campers and fishermen in the wild mountains of southwest Montana today.

The known death toll was eight, but officials feared it would rise to 13.

Many vacationers—officials did not know the number—huddled at a campground on a hillside where they were supplied by air with blankets, water, food and cigarettes.

A bulldozer was to probe into the huge slide at Rock Creek—where the top of a mountain gave way Monday night and created a new hill 200 to 300 feet high. This search was to determine whether other quake victims may be buried in the debris.

Four of the dead were from one family. They were F. R. Bennett, 45, of Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, his two daughters, Carole, 17, and Susan, 5; and a son Tom, 11. Bennett's wife and another son, Phillip, 15, were injured.

More pictures and stories on Montana earthquake are on page 14.

Three helicopters were at West Yellowstone to operate the airlift to bring out the persons in the lakes area above the Madison River valley, where the quakes Monday night and yesterday hit with the most force.

ROAD REOPENED

Many got out last night when buckled, broken U.S. Highway 287 was opened by a road crew, Idaho State Police reported. Some were able to drive out their own cars.

They had been trapped between the slide and damaged Hebgen Dam seven miles away.

The death toll could rise. Survivors reported seeing a couple and a crippled boy swept away in their car by an avalanche. At another location, parts of an automobile registered to Thomas Stowe, 31, of Sandy, Utah, were found. Stowe and his wife were reported missing.

60 INJURED

Approximately 60 persons were injured, but only 27 remained in hospitals in four Montana towns. Six were reported in critical condition.

Most of the victims were campers enjoying outdoor vacations in the rugged wilds of southwestern Montana, less than 20 miles west of Yellowstone Park.

The quake first struck near midnight Monday at Hebgen Dam and farther downstream in the Madison River valley, famous trout fishing country.

There were an estimated 22,000 to 25,000 vacationers in Yellowstone Park when the quakes hit, but no one was reported hurt there. Earth slides closed some roads in the western side of the park.

Additional light tremors north of Hebgen Dam were felt last night, but caused no damage.

At one time last night the death toll was given by officials as 19, then was revised downward by Montana's civil defense director, Hugh Potter.

But sheriff's officers near the quake-stricken area said others might have been carried to their deaths beneath slides.

Geologists said a major movement along a large rock fault west of the Madison River caused the wave of temblors.

QUAKE'S AFTERMATH — Aerial view shows debris left by earthquake that damaged Hebgen Dam near West Yellowstone, Mont. Tons of earth, rock and trees rumbled down this canyon about five miles northwest of Hebgen Lake and dam, burying Montana State Highway 1 and the Madison River which follows the highway.

Suspect Boasted Of Robbing Bank

Ex-convict William (Dugie) Williams, 31, suspected of robbing a Point Reyes Station bank of $14,400 at gunpoint Monday, flashed a wad of currency in Lagunitas that evening and boasted he had just robbed a bank, according to Federal Bureau of Investigation agents.

An FBI affidavit filed with the United States commissioner yesterday in San Francisco says an informant from Lagunitas, not named, saw Williams with the money and heard him say he had robbed a bank.

A formal complaint filed before U. S. Commissioner Joseph Karesh accused Williams of bank robbery accompanied by kidnapping.

Armed bank robbery carries a maximum penalty of 25 years in prison. Kidnapping accompanying the robbery can mean the death penalty if the trial jury so decrees, according to Richard D. Auerbach, FBI agent in charge in San Francisco.

Williams allegedly kidnapped bank manager Atlantic E. Cencio of Petaluma, dumped him off near Samuel P. Taylor Park, then abandoned his car in the hills above Lagunitas. After flashing his money in Lagunitas, he vanished.

Search for Williams turned to the Santa Rosa area today.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, who has been working day and night with Federal Bureau of Investigation agents, said he received information last night that the ex-convict was seen headed toward Santa Rosa in a car. A close description of the car was not available.

Cencio, who identified Williams as the robber from photographs, said he opened the door to the Bank of America banch in Point Reyes Station shortly after the 3 p.m. closing time Monday to admit a man in painter's overalls who said he wanted to make an inter-branch deposit. Minutes later, the man drew a sawed-off shotgun from inside his coveralls, herded other employees and a customer into the vault and scooped up the cash into a paper bag. He left the shotgun on the bank counter, and ordered Cencio to accompany him at the point of a pistol.

Later investigation showed

32 Feared Dead As Airliner Crashes In Spain

BARCELONA, Spain (UPI)—A British chartered airliner carrying a load of students home to England from a Spanish vacation, crashed in the mountains north of here today. First reports said all 32 persons on board were killed.

The plane took off from Barcelona's Prat Airport at 3:57 p.m. and crashed not long afterward.

The aircraft was one of 11 DC3s and several Vickers Viscounts operated by Transair, Ltd., out of Gatwick Airport, near London.

The airline is owned by a charter firm named Airwork, Ltd.

Transair officials in London said they had been informed of the crash.

Businessman, Aide Help Nab Check Suspect

Fred Wellen, who operates San Rafael Typewriter Co., and his mechanic helped police nab a man suspected of passing two stolen payroll checks worth $160 at two San Rafael stores Monday.

The suspect is Thomas Alfred Clennan, 33, who said he came from Oklahoma but gave no local address. According to San Rafael police, Clennan used an alias, Daniel J. Leo Jr., to pass two payroll checks stolen from the Smith and McKay Printing Co. in San Jose.

Wellen said he became suspicious when Clennan bought a used typewriter with a $78 check and took off without trying out the typewriter. A quick

Job Applicant Admits Taking MMWD Cash

A stack of greenbacks totaling $1,062, stolen from the Marin Municipal Water District cashier's cage yesterday, was recovered intact after a confession by an unemployed laborer who admitted the theft.

San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa identified the thief as Ludford Gerald Kalfos, 20, of House 332, Marin City.

Kalfos entered the water district office at 874 Fourth street, San Rafael, to apply for a job.

He told Inspector Nick Giampoli and Officer Richard Camper he took the money from behind the cashier's cage, drove to Hilarita Housing, where he hid the loot under one of the houses, then returned to the water district office to turn in his completed job application.

James Angelo Soldavini of 21 Octavia street, San Rafael, who is head cashier, told police he was preparing the money for deposit at the bank. He tied the currency with a rubber band and left it behind the cage while he made several trips to the rear office for other business.

Kalfos said he saw the money, reached into the cage and grabbed it. When he realized how much money was involved, he said, he wanted to put it back, but Soldavini returned. Kolfos slipped out to hide the money, then returned to turn in his application.

Police were waiting for him.

Free on $1,000 bail, Kalfos was to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon on a grand theft charge.

Swimming Learned In Nick Of Time

Seven-year-old Eric van Shook of San Anselmo learned to swim just in time to prevent his mother, Mrs. Don van Shook, from drowning, the lad's father said today.

Eric and his mother were swimming in their pool at home when Mrs. van Shook choaked and went down in deep water. Eric, who has just been taught swimming by his father, rescued her niftily, the elder Shook reported.

GLAD TO BE HOME — Surrounded by his pet parakeets, 12-year-old Bill Brady of San Anselmo declares that "it's just wonderful" to be home. Young Bill has been released from Shriner's Hospital in San Francisco after the fourth in a series of operations and long hospitalizations for correction of a congenital hip deformity. (Independent-Journal photo)

'It's Just Wonderful!' Exclaims Hub Boy Home From The Hospital

Eleven parakeets, five sisters, two brothers and his parents made up a family reception committee to welcome 12-year-old Billy Brady of San Anselmo home yesterday after major surgery in Shriner's Hospital, San Francisco.

Sitting with tears in his eyes and parakeets clustering on his head and shoulders, all Billy could say was a repeated:

"It's just wonderful! It's just wonderful!"

Normally weighing 128 pounds, Billy now has a temporary weight of 186 pounds including the plaster cast covering the whole lower half of his body.

So it was a tough job for four of the group to struggle into the house carrying Billy in a stretcher loaned by United Ambulance Co. for the occasion, and to be left at the home at 19 Belle avenue until he ceases to have need of it.

Two hundred and nine letters and cards have poured in to comfort Billy, his mother estimated after a quick check-up. The letters started when a story in the Independent-Journal late in June revealed his need for mail during the long convalescence which must follow his fourth — and he hopes last — operation for a congenital hip deformity.

During the first week after the story, 85 letters arrived. They're still coming, Mrs. Brady said.

Billy's father, an auditor for the state Department of Employment in San Rafael, took the day off yesterday to join in the welcome.

The parakeets, belonging to various members of the family, were turned loose in honor of the occasion and they promptly made their way to Billy and sat all over him.

Beside him was a "penny jar" for savings. Attracted by the bright coins, some of the birds sought to pull pennies out of the jar.

Present plan is to take Billy back to the hospital for X-rays on Oct. 22, after which it is hoped that he may be relieved of the present big cast and given another smaller one for the latter part of his convelescence.

Billy hopes to be an eighth grade student at St. Anselmo's School in San Anselmo before the fall term is finished.

Sausalito Eyes Sunday Use Of Parking Meters

The Sausalito City Council last night introduced an ordinance to make parking meters operative Sundays and holidays as well as on week days.

It is scheduled to become effective Oct. 1.

The suggestion was first broached last February but action was deferred for a six-month "cooling off period."

CHANGED HIS MIND

Councilman John E. Koenig Jr., who originally opposed the idea, last night admitted he had changed his viewpoint and urged approval of the plan "as a means to provide a maximum turnover of parking space."

City Manager Donald A. Duerr declared "contrary to the situation existing in most communities, Sausalito has its shopping peak on weekends and holidays at a time when parking space is at a premium."

Spectator J. Frank Hogue, longtime Sausalito resident, suggested: "I think it would be fine to earmark the income on these days to be devoted to recreation. The people would then support the plan."

NOT FOR REVENUE

Koenig argued that the plan should not be considered as a revenue measure or one designed "to gouge tourists."

Fred Turner, a spectator, said it would tend to keep Sausalito residents from shopping elsewhere on Sunday by making available parking spaces now taken by all-day "sleepers."

Similar agreement came from Councilman Marjorie Brady and other spectators.

Heads Committee

Robert D. Torrey, director of instruction and personnel for Tamalpais Union High School District, has been named chairman of the visiting committee for accreditation of a Contra Costa County high schools.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Electronics scored a smart recovery late in the session today to feature an otherwise lower, moderate stock market. Late buying brought the whole market up sharply from its lows in many instances, but losses still outnumbered advances at the close.

Volume for the day was estimated at three million shares against 2,230,000 yesterday.

Losses still ran from fractions to around a point. At the bottom of the day's slump, they had reached two points or more.

All sections of the list shared in the rebound.

Jones and Laughlin paced the steel group by posting a fractional advance. U.S. Steel and Bethlehem were still lower.

Texas Instruments and Zenith, after falling more than a point, edged higher.

Issues still down a point or more included Ford, Goodyear, Anaconda, Kennecott, American Cyanamid, DuPont, Texaco and Schering.

Quentin Escapee Admits Robbery

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The San Quentin convict who was captured in a Mission Valley man hunt Aug. 10 pleaded guilty yesterday to armed robbery and assault with a deadly weapon.

Charles Stephen Dickens, 31, fugitive from a San Quentin fire-fighting camp near Yosemite, admitted holding up a National City market and firing a rifle at a policeman during the subsequent pursuit.

He entered his pleas in municipal court. He will appear for superior court sentencing Aug. 25. He is also wanted in Mariposa County on the escape charge.

Fire Victims Thank Those Who Helped

"We just can't express our appreciation!"

With these words the Woodrow H. Wilson family, who lost their two youngest children Aug. 10, today tried to thank the neighbors and friends who came to the family's aid following the tragedy.

Before county firemen had cleared the debris of the totally destroyed home, contributions of money, clothing and household goods were pouring in to the grief-stricken family.

LUMBER PROVIDED

Through the Marin County Chapter of the Red Cross, the Wilsons were supplied with a refrigerator, stove, water heater and butane tank for another home they own and had been remodeling. Lumber for additions to the home, needed to accommodate the remaining six children, was donated by Wilson's employers, the Larkspur Lumber Co.

Cash contributions totaling several hundred dollars were offered through the Lagunitas Post Office.

BENEFIT DANCES

In addition, two benefit dances have been slated with all proceeds earmarked for the Wilsons.

The first of these is a barn dance Friday night at Roy's Ranch in San Geronimo. Admission is $1, entitling guests to all they can eat.

Another dance is scheduled at the Larkspur Rose Bowl Sept. 6, sponsored by the Double Diamond Square Dance Club of which the Wilsons are members.

CITY VS. BARGE OWNERS

Finale May Be Near For Sausalito Drama

With three of its leading characters absent, two new participants on stage and the usually highly vocal leading lady strangely silent, Sausalito's nine-year-old comedy-drama "Rise and Fall of the Edwards' Barges" appeared last night to be approaching the end of its run as an abbreviated city council and the barge owners each claimed victory.

Missing from the cast were absent Councilmen George E. Keeney and Philip S. Ehrlich Jr., along with City Atty. John B. Ehlen.

NEW PARTICIPANTS

New participants were San Francisco attorney Marvin G. Giometti and the Edwards' engineer.

But the stunning development came as the dark-haired former movie starlett, Mrs. Byron Edwards, usually highly vocal, was silent as a churchmouse as proceedings developed.

Since 1950, the city has been trying without success to get the Edwardses to move their barges from encroaching on city property, to bring their apartments on the barges up to city standards, and to hook up to city sewers.

THWARTED BY DELAYS

Delays for a variety of reasons have thwarted the city's efforts.

Last night, attorney Giometti, in an obvious effort to pour oil on the troubled waters, assured the council the Edwardses are ready to comply.

He said they would move the barges; they would provide proper off-street parking; they would bring the barges-apartments up to specifications and they would connect to sewers —if the city would just give them the permits to do these things.

Apparently taken aback by the offer to accede to the city's demands, the council was silent momentarily. Then Mayor Howard Sievers, mindful of recent promises to accomplish the work and offers to post performance bonds which failed to materialize, asked, "What guarantee does the city have that this work will be accomplished?"

Before he could get an answer, Councilman John E. Koenig Jr., in the past a bitter foe of the Edwardses, said: "That's not a fair question, Howard. This is the first time they've come up with a concrete plan to get the work done. We'll have to take their word for it."

The matter ended as City Manager Donald A. Duerr estimated it might require two weeks to work out details to get permits issued.

As veteran spectators looked on with disbelief at the turn of events, one observed quietly, "The odds are still 10 to one that the Edwardses will outsmart the council and John Ehlen once more."

And the curtain fell.

Shop Plans Win Approval In Larkspur

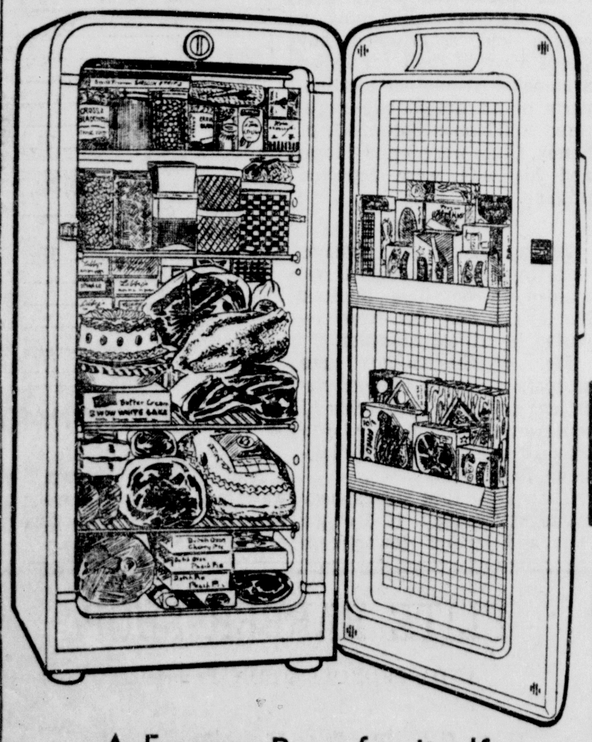

The Larkspur Planning Commission last night approved plans for a new shop to be built for Katharine Eubanks, floral decorator, on a Magnolia avenue lot near Kent Woodlands.

The building will have a display room in front and workroom at the rear. Owned by Dr. Ralph E. Erickson of Kentfield, the building site also fronts Murray lane and Estelle avenue. Mrs. Eubanks' present shop is at 479 Magnolia.

Because two members (David B. McDougall and John Vandall) were absent, the commission postponed until Sept. 1 consideration of Dr. Francis L. Luchetti's petition for apartment rezoning of property at 1 Eden street.

The Independent-Journal reported in error yesterday that plans of Dr. and Mrs. Russell J. Merret of Kentfield for a combined drug store and office building would be submitted to the commission at last night's meeting.

THE TENDER TRAP — Mrs. Joseph Kappel, its manufacturer, exhibits the "Jacojail"—the latest in yellowjacket traps which comes in pastel colors and provides the decorator's touch to the business of catching pests. (Independent-Journal photo)

COLLAPSIBLE AND CHIC

Marinites Marketing Yellow Jacket Traps

Even a yellow jacket trap can be chic.

An enterprising Marin husband and wife proved that today as they placed on the market the "Jacojail," a collapsible yellow jacket trap made of nylon netting, and available in a variety of pastel colors.

Moreover, declares Mrs. Joseph Kappel, the "production department" of the husband-and-wife team, "It works!"

The current interest in trapping yellow jackets, which are a Marin pest of the first order this summer, stirred the Kappels to seek something more esthetic than the water tub, Mason jar or flytrap types of 'jacket catchers so far suggested.

Kappel, a TV repairman, designed the nylon netting trap, which is collapsible. It follows the flytrap style, is baited with a piece of meat in the bottom. But it's decorative as well as utilitarian.

The job of making the traps fell to Mrs. Kappel, who turned the couple's home at 45 Wreden avenue, Fairfax, into a yellow jacket trap factory.

Marin hardware stores grabbed at the opportunity to offer an inexpensive yellow jacket trap designed as a decorator's piece, reported Mrs. Kappel. By noon yesterday, she had 30 orders for the "Jacojail" to fill.

She denied the traps are so prettified they'll attract only female yellow jackets.

Two Inverness Youths Hurt By Assailants

Two Inverness youths were hurt Monday night when four others jumped them in the First Valley at Inverness, the victims told Sheriff's Deputy Kenneth Irving.

Victims are Ronald B. Abelseth, 18, and Robert C. Harper, 16. Harper suffered a cut under the left eye which required six stitches. Abelseth received a swollen nose.

Three teen-agers and George Bottini, 20, of 30 Magnolia avenue, San Anselmo, were jailed on suspicion of assault and battery. Bottini, free on $250 bail, is to appear in court tomorrow. The other three boys were sent to Marin Juvenile Hall.

D. B. Abelseth, father of Ronald, said his son was turning his car around when someone in another car threw a pine cone, hitting young Harper. This started the argument.

In the melee, Harpers' glasses were broken and his face cut.

S.F. Woman's Body Found In Bay Water

The body of an attractive San Francisco woman, who vanished from McNear's Beach last Friday, floated to shore off Alameda Naval Air Station yesterday.

The body was definitely identified as that of Helen F. Brandeis, 34, last night at the San Francisco coroner's office by her grieving mother, Mrs. Margaret Buchstad.

Mrs. Buchstad was at the Marin County sheriff's office when the Coast Guard reported Miss Brandeis' body had been found floating in the bay. In a state of near-collapse, she was comforted by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos' secretary, Mildred Hall.

Inspectors Mike Melovich and Bowen Bridges of the sheriff's office said there was no indication of violence. The San Francisco coroner gave the cause of death as drowning. The woman was clad in the bathing suit she wore at McNear's Beach.

Miss Brandeis managed a San Francisco maternity wear shop. She had been ill for the past month.

She drove to Marin for a swim Thursday. When her car and clothes were found Friday at the beach, authorities began investigating.

IKE AND HIS CASTLE—Dwight Eisenhower and son John, then general and captain respectively, wore military uniforms when they visited Ike's castle, Culzean, in Scotland in 1946. The previous year Scotland had, in appreciation of Ike's war services, put a modernized apartment at the castle at his disposal for the rest of his life. The castle is now being readied in the event President Eisenhower decides to drop in during his forthcoming visit to Queen Elizabeth at Balmoral Castle, only a four-hour drive away. (AP Wirephoto)

NO WEDDINGS SLATED

Not Likely That Ghostly Piper Will Serenade Ike At His Castle

AYR, Scotland (AP)— People who knew about such things say the ghostly piper of Culzean Castle is sad. He doesn't think the time will be right to pipe if President Eisenhower comes for a visit to his Scottish home this month.

Within the walls of Culzean —pronounced Cullane — there is a spot known as the Piper's Brae. On the eve of a marriage of someone in the family founders of Culzean, the ghost piper plays, say the local Scots.

Workers at the castle confidently expects that when the President visits Britain last this month, he will turn the castle into a White House for at least a day or two. But they hold little prospect for a marriage during the visit, thus, the piper's sadness.

The castle caretakers are beating carpets, airing tapestries and are in a general flurry of excitement because of rumors that their "laird" is coming home.

In 1945, a modernized top floor apartment of 16 rooms was put at Eisenhower's disposal for the rest of his life. The gesture was a token of Scotland's appreciation for his services as Allied supreme commander during World War II.

Year in, year out, it awaits him. Before his election to the presidency, he vacationed twice at Culzean Castle. Since then, his brother Milton, and a few friends have had holidays there

Located on a towering cliff above the majestic sweep of the Firth of Clyde, Culzean lies about 15 miles south of Ayr and a few miles north of Turnberry.

The prospect of an Eisenhower visit has already begun to swell the ranks of tourists who daily troop through the castle, paying three shillings — 42 cents — for the privilege. The price of admission, however, does not allow them to see Eisenhower's flat. That's strictly private.

The money goes to the National Trust, a government institution that looks after and preserves old houses and other national monuments.

"The American president will soon be coming here to stay, won't he?" asked a Scotswoman sightseer. "Ah, is he now?" replied the caretaker, William Miller, with mock surprise.

Then, with a mysterious wink, he added:

"A gentleman from Washington was here recently making certain inquiries. I can say no more."

If Eisenhower visits Queen Elizabeth at Balmoral, Culzean is only a four-hour drive away.

In addition to Culzean's other charms, two golf courses are nearby.

Marin Not Using Alameda Jail Farm

A two-year-old agreement to transfer prisoners from the crowded Marin County jail to Alameda's Santa Rita jail farm has never been used although "sometimes there are 35 or 40 men sleeping on the jail floor."

That was the report the Marin County Board of Supervisors heard yesterday.

In a monthly report on county operations, Asst. County Administrator Alan Bruce told the supervisors that during July the average daily jail population was 72 prisoners, with a peak of 80. The jail is supposed to have a capacity of about 50.

In spite of this, Bruce said, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos reported that the control of prisoners in jail has been much improved since two new jailers were added in May. But Mountanos "does not intend to take any steps to shift prisoners to Santa Rita," Bruce reported.

The reason is, the assistant administrator went on, that in addition to cost of transportation and time of deputies in taking the prisoners to Alameda, there is a $2.85 per day charge for keeping the prisoners there. "A few less in jail here doesn't reduce the costs here equally," he said.

Bruce urged the supervisors consider spending the extra money to get some of the prisoners to Santa Rita "where there is a rehabilitation program" rather than having them "sitting and rotting down here."

He said he'd like to see enough sent to Adameda to get the jail population down to 50 or 60."

"It's a terrible thing down there," added chairman Walter R. Castro. "I've been down there on Saturday and Sunday when they had 75 or 80 men in there with 35 or 40 of them sleeping on the floor."

Supervisor Vera Schultz said she couldn't understand why the Alameda facilities hadn't been used, and asked how many would be eligible for transfer to Alameda.

Bruce said reports on April, May and June indicated that about 17 would be eligible at present for the minimum security facilities offered.

The board agreed to meet next week with the sheriff and probation officials to discuss the problem.

Position Resigned

W. J. Clyde has resigned from the presidency of Marin Building Associates, Inc., general contractors, to handle contracts in the northern part of the county with another group.

Auto Rental Service Opens In Mill Valley

South Marin's first "rent-a-car service" has been opened in Mill Valley by 23-year-old Bill Eberhart, proprietor of the Eberhart Service Station at 1 East Blithedale avenue.

Eberhart will deliver passenger cars, pickup trucks and trailers to any point in Marin County on a basis of rental by hour, day or week, he says. Rates, according to Eberhart, are below the prevailing national average.

There are only two other rent-a-car services in Marin, both operating from San Rafael.

Eberhart has operated his station only two years, but last April he won a free plane ride to the finish of the annual Mobilgas Economy Run in Kansas City, Mo., as the regional top station operator in a nationwide contest for "outstanding Mobilgas dealer" among 14 northern California districts.

The victory was gain for excellence in business management and the appearance of his station.

Study Shows Bay Residents Back Rapid Transit System

By CHAPIN A. DAY

A rapid transit system proposed by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District is overwhelmingly favored by residents of the five Bay Counties. Despite this favorable opinion, however, less than a two-thirds majority say their communities should contribute their fair share to its construction.

That was the finding of a two and a half month public opinion survey reported to the district directors at their meeting this afternoon in San Francisco. Director T. J. De Lasaux of Mill Valley, chairman of the public relations committee, presented it to the board.

The survey was conducted by the firm of Facts Consolidated through 1,700 personal interviews, 236 of them in Marin County.

RESULTS ENCOURAGING

General Manager John M. Peirce called the results "very encouraging." He said the mass of data developed by the survey would be "an invaluable guide and working tool for the district in the months ahead."

The survey concluded that the rapid transit program is "overwhelmingly favored by those who learn about it, but must be thoroughly understood to form a favorable opinion."

A majority of those questioned, 55 per cent, said they had noticed something about the proposed plan recently. More than 86 per cent of them reported they had seen it in a newspaper. This lead to the recommendation that television and radio should be more widely used in an educational program.

SOME PERCENTAGES

Only 21.6 per cent of those questioned had formed an opinion about the system. Of these, however, 84.5 per cent favored it.

In Marin County, 24.1 per cent had formed an opinion and 87.7 per cent of these favored the plan.

Marin County showed the greatest reluctance of any of the counties to pay its fair share. Asked if their communities should pay their share of half the construction cost if fares couldn't do it, 61 per cent of all those interviewed said they would approve, while 18.7 said they didn't know. In Marin, the percentage was only 57.6 per cent in favor, with 23.3 not knowing.

Marin, too, showed the greatest reluctance to use a rapid transit system. Whereas in the five counties 21.3 per cent said the change to rapid transit would be "impracticable" for them personally and 17.6 absolutely rejected the idea of using it, in Marin 23.8 per cent said a change would be "impractical" and 20.8 per cent reported they'd never use and don't like the idea.

These are some of the other findings:

After reading a brief explanation of the transit plan and the possible bond issue required of as much as 700 million dollars, a majority of 72.7 per cent of all respondents said they favored it. Only 5.1 per cent opposed it, and 22.2 per cent were undecided. The fast transportation, decreased highway congestion, safety and decreased parking congestion were the features most often mentioned as particularly liked by those favoring the plan.

After reading further information about the plan, predicted population growth, automobile congestion and freeway plans, the number of respondents favoring rapid transit increased to 79 per cent. This is well over a two-thirds majority in all counties needed to pass a bond issue. At this stage of the interview, 16.2 per cent remained undecided and 5.2 were opposed.

In another question concerning rapid transit's relationship to freeways, 87 per cent of all respondents favored completion in some way of the proposed rapid transit system. Of this total, 72 per cent favored completion of rapid transit in coordination with the freeway program, and an additional 15 per cent favored its completion independently of the freeway program.

Among the 5 per cent opposing rapid transit, the paramount dislike was the expense of the bond issue and resultant taxes.

About 92 per cent of all respondents said they traveled some place on the routes which would be served by the proposed rapid transit system. Of this number, 54 per cent said rapid transit of the type described would induce them to change from their present modes of travel. The time saved and added freedom of movement were the outstanding reasons given, but the relaxation, convenience and reduced expense also were important.

About 35 per cent said they would not use rapid transit, and 10.5 per cent did not know if they would use the facilities.

Dislike of waiting, slowness, indirect routes, poor station locations and a consequent preference for driving were the outstanding reasons cited by respondents for not using present transit facilities.

Among those respondents using present transit facilities, infrequent schedules, or no schedules, were the main reasons for unfavorable comment. Slowness and overcrowding were next most often mentioned.

About 65 per cent of the respondents said they thought rapid transit would help the growth of their community, and only 2.1 per cent said it would hinder growth.

Guarantees By Marin Asked On Flood Project

The Army Corps of Engineers is ready to go to work on the Coyote Creek flood control project in Tamalpais Valley, but wants some ironclad assurances from Marin County first.

In a letter from the engineers, read yesterday to the Marin County Board of Supervisors, it was requested that the county board pass a resolution detailing certain assurances on the county's part, prior to any work by the engineers.

The county last April had passed a similar resolution, but made the county's participation in the project contingent on acquiring state funds.

Among assurances wanted in a new resolution were: That all lands would be turned over to the United States without cost and that all utilities would be relocated without cost to the government; that the United States would be held free of any damages resulting from construction; the county would rebuild any bridges and culverts; the county would see that the project would be maintained and operated; the county would provide plans, and give the engineers to right to cross any lands and place construction on all sites acquired for the project.

The board voted to turn the matter over to the county department of public works, the county counsel and the planning commission staff. The planning staff and the public works personnel are to work out a plan of obtaining rights of way.

The engineers asked for speedy action so that the project would be started by next April.

Supervisor Vera Schultz said the stumbling block of money for the rights of way has been knocked aside. She said the $325,000 appropriated by the last Legislature will be for the Coyote Creek project, and that it is her understanding that the county will acquire property and be reimbursed by the state on a month-to-month basis.

County Counsel Leland H. Jordan is scheduled to prepare a new resolution satisfactory to the engineers.

Transit Directors Will Hold First Meeting In Marin

Directors of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District will hold their next meeting in Marin County on Sept. 10. It will be the first time the board has met in this county.

T. J. DeLasaux of Mill Valley, chairman of the public relations committee, today invited the directors to attend a no-host luncheon prior to the meeting. The luncheon will be held at 12:15 p.m. at the Edgewater Inn, Corte Madera. Gen. Man. John Peirce will give a brief talk on plans for Marin County. There will be a brief question and answer period for the public officials and interested citizens who attend, DeLasaux said.

The general meeting is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. in the county courthouse.

Pressure On Caribbean 'Bad Boys' To Behave

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Most of the foreign ministers of the Americas hope one of their major actions at their conference here will shame troublemakers in the Caribbean into behaving themselves.

The majority of the 21 ministers made it plain before they ended their Caribbean peace conference here yesterday that they don't like what's going on in that sea of trouble south of the United States.

They left banking heavily on public opinion to bring moral pressure on people who disturb the peace in the Caribbean and elsewhere—at least until more permanent measures to be arranged at the regular Inter-American conference scheduled in Quito next February.

The Santiago conference did not single out any culprits or slap any specific wrists, even though the fight continued at the conference table between representatives of the two major Caribbean antagonists, Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba and Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo, dictator of the Dominican Republic.

Even before the conference the ministers said they did not plan to umpire the invasions ranging back and forth in the Caribbean. They said they wanted to create a psychological climate that would keep would-be invaders at home or at home-in-exile.

The most immediate step taken was to direct the Inter-American Peace Committee of the Organization of American States to keep watch over the trouble spots, study ways to prevent attempts from abroad to overthrow legal governments and report to the Quito conference next winter.

The committee can make investigations at the call of a victimized country or on its own initiative. But for an on-the-spot check, the committee will have to get the consent of the country it wants to investigate.

The conference placed new and strong emphasis on the classic hemisphere principle of non-intervention, while stressing the importance of human rights and representative democracy.

Explosion Kills 2 On Carrier

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Two sailors were killed and about 20 others injured today in an explosion aboard the aircraft carrier Wasp 250 miles east of here.

A Navy spokesman here said a fire was started in a hangar bay when the engine of a helicopter exploded.

One man was killed outright. Another died shortly thereafter.

Most of the injured suffered burns. Four destroyers stood by the Wasp and helped fight the fire.

The Navy said the Wasp was on anti-submarine maneuvers and was now headed for Quonset Point, R.I.

SOVIET JOKE NOT SO FUNNY IN THE WEST

LONDON (UPI)—The favorite joke making the rounds in Russia goes like this, Soviet embassy attache M. Seminov told the London News Chronicle:

"In America there are two classes of people, optimists and pessimists. The optimists insist on their children learning Russian. The pessimists are having them taught Chinese."

Teacher Group Asks House Probers For Prompt Action

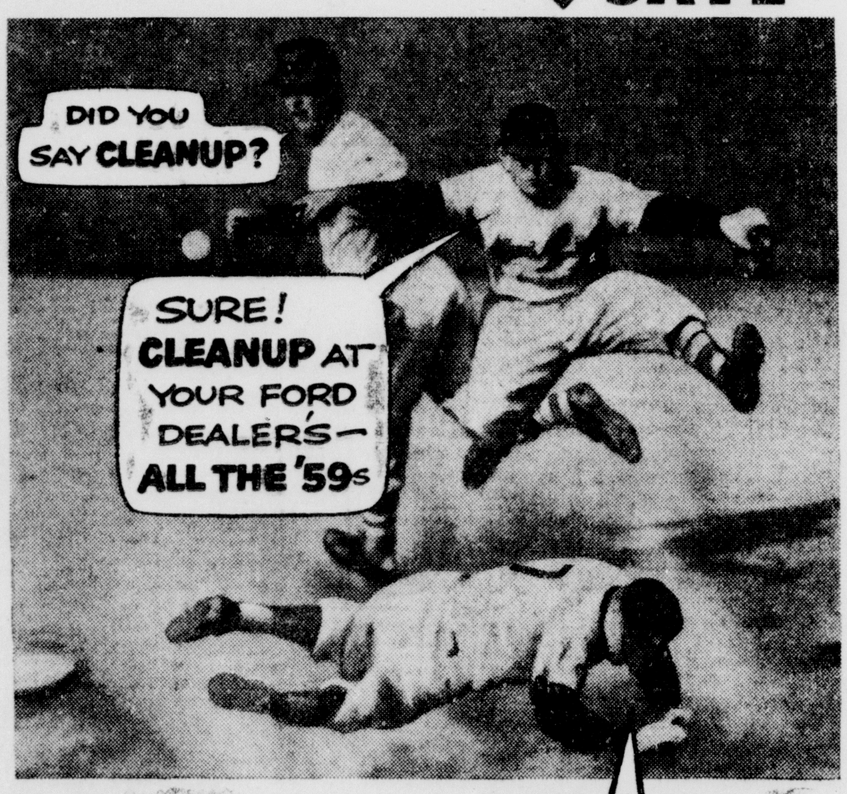

BURLINGAME (AP)—The California Teachers Assn. wants the House Unamerican Activities Committee to act before classes resume in September if it believes there are subversive teachers in the state.

Arthur F. Corey, association executive secretary, wrote Rep. Francis E. Walters (D-Pa.), committee chairman, noting the committee's scheduled June hearings, reset for Sept. 1, now have been postponed until Oct. 14.

"If the committee actually believes that a sinister intrigue exists in California schools, it has an obligation to take immediate action other than issuance of alarmist public statements," Corey wrote.

He noted that California law provides for dismissal of teachers who refuse to answer questions by their school boards about membership in the Communist Party or organizations advocating violent overthrow of the government.

Witness Admits Anger At Willis

A husband whose wife had testified to an abortion by Dr. Jack E. Willis of Mill Valley told a jury in Marin Superior Court today that events following the operation caused him to become "very disillusioned and unhappy" about Dr. Willis.

This was because she miscarried the second child of twins and had to go into a hospital, he said. Later, when Dr. Willis failed to show immediate cooperation in relieving the husband and wife of attention from police, he became "angry" the witness conceded under cross-examination by defense attorney Leslie Gillen.

When Gillen asked the cause of the witness disillusionment, the latter replied:

"Because I almost lost my wife."

Gillen pointed to testimony by wife and husband that they had nonetheless told a false story to police. The witness said, "It may seem irrational but it's a fact."

"You were going to expose Dr. Willis?"

"I was going to give his name to police"—this referring to testimony that police had asked for the doctor's name, though at that time neither wife nor husband had admitted to an abortion.

"You also wanted your 500 bucks back?"

"Yes."

Gillen referred to testimony by both witnesses that Dr. Willis was highly nervous at the time of the operation and asked, "Why didn't you stop the procedure?"

"We thought him qualified and that this was no time to draw back, so long as his actions were within reason. We knew what we were doing was illegal."

"Even if your wife's life was involved?"

"We knew my wife's life was involved."

FALSE STORY TOLD

The witness described a false story he and his wife had testified to having told police, to the effect that an emergency arose as they were passing through Mill Valley and they got Dr. Willis' name "out of the book" with no abortion performed, but a subsequent miscarriage. Gillen quizzed him at length as to his reasons for changing the story.

The witness denied that a district attorney's representative had threatened him with prosecution but said the legal position was described and he was "afraid of it." He went on:

"We were told that if we appeared before the grand jury we would not be prosecuted."

"That was good news?"

"Yes."

"It served as an inducement to cooperate?"

"Yes."

TESTIMONY REVIEWED

Gillen reviewed grand jury testimony and said:

"On a basis of what was told you by officers, you felt that Dr. Willis was a butcher who brought women to the threshhold of death?"

"In a sense, yes."

The witness repeatedly insisted that his feeling toward Dr. Willis was "disillusion" rather than "anger," But when Gillen quoted from a statement before the grand jury that he had been angry, he said:

"My answer was because Dr. Willis had been unwilling to call police (after police interviews of the patient and her husband) and wanted to ride the thing through, so I grew angry. It began to upset me because they didn't want to face this, as I wanted them to, and handle it themselves."

Grand Jurrors Get Slaying Case Monday

The rifle slaying of a 34-year-old mother at a San Rafael home last week will be presented to the Marin County Grand Jury Monday night, Asst. Dist. Atty. Roger Garety disclosed today.

San Gabriel contractor Robert Burdette Rogers, 37, has denied murdering his attractive wife, Bertie, 35. Through his attorney, he told police the shooting was accidental. The tragedy occurred at the home of Mrs. Rogers' mother at 9 Greenwood avenue, San Rafael.

Rogers said he was only trying to threaten his wife because she had been seeing another man.

Among witnesses who are expected to testify before the grand jury Monday night are Lt. Jay Fletcher of San Rafael police, who found the body; Dr. Warren Bostick, autopsy surgeon; Deputy Coroner Harold Keaton; and Inspector Nick Giampoli.

flown aboard the Albatrosses to three locations: Butte and Bozeman, Mont., and Idaho Falls, Ida. There are airports and hospitals at all three.

Fourth Air Force Air Search and Rescue Coordination Center emphasized the air rescue operation will continue until "everybody is out of the canyon."

Captain Champion piloted the first Albatross, from the 41st Air Rescue Squadron, to West Yellowstone and is directing the operation from there. The second Albatross, dispatched last yesterday, is manned by reservists from the 303rd Reserve Air Rescue Squadron at Los Angeles, which is in training at Hamilton. All its crew are from the Los Angeles area, with Lt. Col. Reginald L. Anderson as pilot. It is the plane ordered back today.

Four parademics accompanied Captain Champion and his crew. They were at work today with the injured being taken into West Yellowstone by 'copter.

A Western Air Defense Force C47 flew a radio transmitter from Hamilton to West Yellowstone yesterday, returning early today.

Joseph Hladecek of the Red Cross Pacific area disaster office in San Francisco made the flight in the C47.

Capt. Clifton Eccles of 672 Orange avenue, Novato, the pilot, said today a number of small civilian planes, as well as the helicopters, were assisting in the rescue work at West Yellowstone.

"We landed just at dusk and we didn't have time to get out of the plane—there were no landing field lights working and we had to get off while it was still light."

Tideland Development Meeting Tomorrow

Possible procedures for future development of the Richardson Bay tidelands extending from Mill Valley marshland area to Marinship will be discussed tomorrow evening by owners or representatives of abutting land at a dinner meeting at Sabella's at 7 o'clock, according to Francis L. Newton, temporary chairman of the group.

Lincoln Job Award Made Tentatively

The San Rafael City Council at a short special meeting this morning tentatively awarded Ghilotti Brothers a $84,237 contract for the Lincoln avenue extension.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen told the council that all property owners along the extension, which would curve through the former Little League Park and connect with Irwin street, have decided to give up certain parcels of land to meet assessments the city needs to complete the project.

Actual awarding of the contract will come after the city attorney has checked to make sure property owners officially will join in the costs.

The council also passed two other resolutions in the matter. One was to accept easements from property owners and require them to pay assessments.

The other was an order to the city attorney to file condemnation proceedings to gain the easements. The city also will have to file a suit against Pacific Gas and Electric Co. for properties. PG&E has agreed to an exchange of properties but the suit will be necessary to avoid delays.

Andersen indicated the job probably will get under way in a week or so.

NMWD Board Seeks Water From Creek

Directors of the North Marin Water District last night agreed to apply to the state Water Rights Board for authorization to draw a maximum of 21,100 acre-feet of water per year from the Arroyo Sausal Creek eight miles west of Stafford Reservoir.

The creek is a tributary of Walker Creek, to divert the water, a dam would have to be built in the vicinity of a gauging station five miles west of the district's present boundary line, said Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager.

"It could mean we would have to condemn some land there in order to put a dam on the site," he said.

North Marin Water District directors also decided to meet next Wednesday with members of the Sonoma County Flood Control District, which controls the distribution of Russian River water, to begin negotiations for Russian River water.

Garden Unit To Hear Speaker On Bonsai

Roy H. Wendelken of Novato will speak on the culture of bonsai at the meeting of the Garden Society of Marin to be held Friday at 8 p.m. in Room 40, chemistry building, College of Marin, Kentfield.

According to Harold Schutte, vice president of the garden group, the program will include discussion of types of bonsai, their care, root pruning, trimming and pinching.

BAY TRANSIT DISTRICT TAX RATE FIXED

The tax rate of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District for 1959-60 will be slightly less than four cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The district board of directors, meeting this afternoon in San Francisco, adopted a rate of 3.96 cents. This compares with a rate of 1.7 cents last year, the first full year of the district's operation.

The rate is based on a budget of $1,843,573 to be expended during the fiscal year.

The tax will be levied against all taxpayers in the five county district of Marin, San Francisco, Contra Costa, Alameda and San Mateo counties.

ROBBERY

the shotgun was not loaded.

The FBI said Williams was married a week ago Sunday at Minden, Nev., to Joanne Stevens, former San Rafael waitress. They had been living at a Santa Rosa motel. Mrs. Williams told agents Williams left the motel at 4 a.m. Monday after an argument, and she has not seen him since.

Williams, a tree trimmer and painter, is well known among police in both Marin and Sonoma Counties. He served time in San Quentin Prison for grand theft in San Bernardino, burglary in San Diego and bad checks in Sonoma. He was paroled last September, according to records in the Marin sheriff's office.

Last night FBI agents checked the Sausalito area where Williams operated the Bay Tree Service. Then the search turned to Sonoma County.

House Moving At Marin City Starts Again

Removal of 49 vacated houses which stand in the path of redeveloping public housing at Marin City was resumed today under a compromise plan by which the structures were sold to Clear Lake land developer John Larson.

The houses have been standing vacant since their original purchaser, Len Rogers of Texas, abandoned them, charging the Marin County Housing Authority with failure to provide adequate protection against vandalism last year. They are to be removed in three section to Clear Lake where they will be used as vacation and retirement cottages.

The legal tangles involved in the sale and removal of the houses was resolved with the sale of the houses to Larson for $100 each. The removal was delayed for over a year by the tangles, but construction of the new housing authority apartments kept pace with itself, and, in fact is 90 days ahead of schedule, the housing authority said.

Removal of the old buildings, Larson said, is being handled by Montgomery House Movers of Oakland. Previously, the buildings were being disassembled prior to removal.

Fire Chief Home

Homestead Fire Chief Chester Kirby has returned to his post after a month-long combination business and vacation trip into the Northwest. He travelled more than 5,000 miles entirely by bus. At Spokane, Wash., he attended a convention of the intermountain group of the International Fire Chiefs Assn.

$50,000 Suit Stems From Plane Crash

A $50,000 damage suit was filed in Marin Superior Court yesterday for the death of an Oakland man who perished with three others when their plane plunged into the bay off San Quentin Point one year ago.

Mrs. Irma M. Yates of Oakland, widow of George P. Yates, 45, is seeking the damages from the estate of the plane's pilot, Godfrey Gunnar Abramson. Mrs. Yates claims the crash resulted from willful misconduct of the pilot.

Abramson, who worked for the San Rafael City Building Department, had just taken off from San Rafael Airport on the morning of Aug. 22, 1958. Witnesses said the plane seemed to veer downward at full speed until it hit the water.

Leonard H. Reeves, 37, of Santa Venetia, and his son, Ronald, 14, also died in the crash.

On Hospital Staff

Dr. A. H. Jewell, Terra Linda general surgeon, and Dr. John R. Lee, Mill Valley general practitioner, have been appointed to the Marin General Hospital medical staff as associate members.

call to the San Jose firm showed the check to be stolen.

Wellen had his mechanic, Charles Albert Krause of Woodacre, trail Clennan. He saw the suspect near the courthouse and called police. By then, the man had vanished. Krause found Clennan again in a bar, had beer with him, then slipped into the back room to call police. But Clennan disappeared again.

Police finally found Clennan at a restaurant on Lincoln avenue.

Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa said Clennan admitted passing the checks. He told officers he had been convicted of crimes three times in the past, and had "rolled a drunk" in Los Angeles to get identification papers which he used in passing the checks.

Mrs. Rachel Gorb of Gorb's Jewelers said she, too, had been victimized by the same man. He paid for a wristwatch there with a $184 check, also stolen from the San Jose printing firm.

Police said Clennan had with him six company checks, all stolen from the same San Jose firm.

In World War II, 12,500 Army and Navy nurses went overseas.

New Housing Bill Approved By Senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — A thumping 71-24 Senate vote for a new $1,050,000,000 housing bill gave its sponsors encouragement today that the legislation finally will become law.

Both the final passage tally and the 68-27 margin by which the Senate refused to send the measure back to its banking committee were well beyond the two-thirds needed to beat another housing veto.

Indications were, however, that final congressional action on the bill would not come promptly.

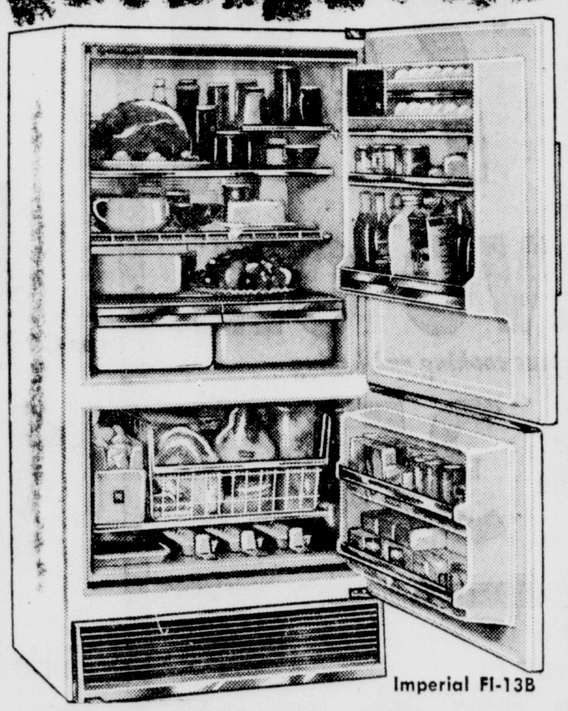

The measure now goes to the House.

Mosk Appoints Acting Criminal Division Chief

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk yesterday appointed his assistant, Charles J. O'Brien, to head his criminal division.

Experts Seeking Cause Of Rich Widow's Death

DOWNIEVILLE (AP)—Expert are seeking the cause of the death of Pearl Ada Putney, 72, whose bones were found scattered in a wooded foothill area of the Sierra a year after she vanished.

The wealthy widow last was seen Aug. 15, 1958 in Marysville, six weeks after she left her home in Washington, D.C. with an ex-convict on what she called "a last fling." The bones, found Sunday, were identified yesterday.

Sheriff W .D. Johnson said he understood the Federal Bureau of Investigation had begun a search for the ex-convict, Larry Lord Motherwell, 42.

Motherwell was arrested Jan. 18 in Las Vegas, Nev., for questioning in the death of his 14-month-old mentally retarded daughter in Maryland in 1954. A grand jury declined to indict him in Frederick, Md., in that death and he was released Feb. 6.

The widow's parched bones were found by Alma Freeman of Trio Oso, who was in the foothills hunting pine cones with her granddaughter.

Federal Mediators Spark Effort To End Truck Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Federal mediators called for a meeting of Teamsters Union and employers' representatives today in a new effort to settle a strike which is now in its 13th day.

Arthur C. Viat, regional director of the Federal Mediation Service, said the strike in San Francisco and San Mateo counties had "seriously curtailed commercial activities and affected public welfare."

The union announced 54 relatively small firms employing 170 teamsters acceded to the union's demand for a $2.50 daily wage boost plus 25 cents in fringe benefits.

Pay had ranged from $19.80 to $21.80 daily before the walkout.

More than 6,000 teamsters in the two counties remain idle.

It was the insistence of that package increase by members of Teamsters Local 85 that started the strike Aug. 7 The membership had rejected its negotiators recommendation for acceptance of a three-year contract providing annual $10 a week raises.

SCENE OF FATAL KANSAS CITY OIL BLAST

Minutes after this view of Kansas City, Kan., firemen shooting streams of water at blazing oil storage tanks was taken yesterday, one of the tanks exploded. A sheet of flames shot into the street, engulfing some of the firemen and setting trucks in lower right afire. Two firemen were fatally burned, 17 hospitalized (four with critical injuries), and more than 100 less seriously injured. Loss was estimated at $150,000. (AP Wirephoto)

Runaway Car Leaves Trail Of Damage

At about 6:30 p.m. yesterday Theodore Dutt was working on his convertible in the driveway of his home at 530 Oak Manor drive, Oak Manor.

The car was in neutral, the brake was off and the car was not running. Then—smash!

According to a California Highway Patrol report, this is what happened:

Dutt's car rolled out of the driveway and zigzagged across the street, hitting a sedan belonging to S. D. Watkins at 448 Oak Manor and a station wagon belonging to Edward E. Hewitt at 449. The rear fender and trunk of Watkins' car and the right side of Hewitt's were damaged.

As the car rolled it cut through small trees, shrubbery and lawn, hit a lamp post, rolled over toys, and knocked down a rock wall and a fence.

It stopped after snapping a utility pole.

Wiley Maloney of 184 Oak Manor drive said a neighbor told him the car narrowly missed some children.

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. crewmen made temporary repairs to the pole last night.

BASEBALL WAS CAUSE OF PRISON FIGHT

A fist fight between condemned author-rapist Caryl Chessman and another San Quentin Prison Death Row inmate turned out to be a dispute over the tight National League pennant race.

A prison hearing board learned yesterday an argument over baseball led to the fight Sunday between Chessman, of Los Angeles, and Lawrence Wade, condemned murderer from Oakland.

Chessman, said Associate Warden Walter Achuff, likes the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Wade likes the San Francisco Giants.

For their battle, which ended in a handshake, each man was sentenced by the board to two days in isolation and five days without his daily exercise period.

"They are pretty poor fighters," Achuff commented. "About all they did was get some exercise. Tempers get short where they are."

The maiden name of Madame Curie, discoverer of radium, was Marie Sklodowska. She was born in Warsaw, Poland, Nov. 7, 1867.

County Group To Study Novato Airport Lease

A committee of four to consider a proposed draft for Marin County sublease of the Novato airport was appointed yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Nominated in a resolution by William A. Gnoss of Novato and accepted unanimously to act for the county were Donald A. Jensen, county administrator; Leland H. Jordan, county counsel; Marvin W. Brigham, public works director, and Leon A. de Lisle, county auditor.

The draft document was put before the board by Gene Tromley, chairman of the Novato Airport Committee.

The agreement would provide that Marin County take over the remainder of a 15-year lease which started April 25, 1957, between W. Q. Wright Jr. as owner and H. O. Tollefson as operator of the Novato airport, while also acquiring right of way from U.S. Highway 101.

A significant blank in the document, regarded with some question by members of the board, left the county's contribution for improvements still to be determined but with $17,000 estimated as needed for runway and with next priorities going to public access road and parking area.

Supervisor Gnoss said that in the proposal that "we have something in the northern part of the county that we've been working for, ready to go."

But Supervisor Vera L. Schultz of Mill Valley, disclaiming any exclusive interest in development of Richardson Bay for flying, raised the point that division of available money—$38,000 was estimated by the supervisors to have accumulated from aviation gas tax refund—might exhaust what is on hand.

"The county has started condemnation of 25 acres on Richardson Bay," she said. "If the 25 acres costs more than is indicated by a $500 an acre appraisal, where will the money come from?"

On a basis of Gnoss' estimate of about $25,000 for Novato, Supervisor William D. Fusselman pointed out that a need for more than $13,000 for Richardson Bay could raise a problem.

"I'm not against Novato," Supervisor Schultz went on, "but I want to point out that we are committed to the Commodore airport which is already in operation."

Monte Maria Services District Election Oct. 6

After an unsuccessful effort to persuade backers of the Monte Maria Community Services District that they might be causing themselves undue trouble and expense, the Marin County Board of Supervisors voted yesterday to set Oct. 6 as the date for an election on the district.

Action was taken after an appearance by E. D. King, head of a group of residents in the affected area, who said formation of a district was favored "over 14 to one" in a poll of 124 homes in the Monte Maria tract.

Supervisors raised the point that Novato might soon become an incorporated city encompassing Monte Maria and would take over anticipated functions of the proposed new district.

"If you want the district only for planting it might be simpler to utilize the services area act," suggested Supervisor William D. Fusselman. "You might be a little top-heavy unless you wish to use the full resources of the district. The area could take care of simple things like planting. A district might be expensive and later wiped out."

King said that the petition was for a district and that the people "know it will do more than planting." Though the district may later be taken over by the new city of Novato, he said, "we'll be doing them a favor by cleaning things up and paying the bill ourselves."

Supervisor William A. Gnoss of Novato added, of the proposed city, that "it will be a long time while baby learns to crawl" and he put through two resolutions paving the way for election on the proposed district.

The supervisors also:

1. Received requests from 14 more Novato property owners for exclusion from the proposed city of Novato and three protests to construction of a civic center.
2. Approved county removal of railroad tracks adjacent to Tamalpais High School at a cost of $2,200, of which the City of Mill Valley is expected to pay one-half.
3. Approved a resolution allowing Sonoma County to repair a low part of the Tomales-Petaluma road at the county boundary, with 450 feet of the repairs in Marin. Marin will be expected to pay the cost of repairs within the county only.
4. Appointed the following: Dr. Theodore J. Norby, assistant county superintendent of schools in charge of business administrative services, county schools department, $862 per month, replacing Leland W. Harris, resigned; Wallace Gin, kitchen helper, county farm, $220, replacing Juey Suem Jow.

San Anselmo Garbage Rates Topic For Council Meeting

The cost and efficiency of San Anselmo garbage disposal is due for a going-over Monday night at an adjourned meeting of the city council following City Manager Arthur W. Brewer's recommendation to councilmen last night that current rates be reduced.

On the basis of a 20-day survey, Brewer's conclusions were that the rate increase granted the San Anselmo Garbage Disposal Co. under their franchise last February was a mistake.

Appearing before the council next Monday will be Victor Vallerga, one of the company partners, and his attorney, to discuss justification of what Brewer termed "the highest rates in the county for the services performed."

Taking issue with Brewer was Councilman Carmel H. Booth, who maintained the company was giving the city the best service it has ever enjoyed.

"I resent in a democracy any legislative body going into a business and demanding a statement of the profit and loss of that business," Mrs. Booth said in answer to Councilman Carleton G. Little's suggestion that the garbage company's books be brought before the council.

"I don't believe in granting an increase just to get an inefficient man out of hock," Little said.

An example of inefficiency in the company's operations, according to the city survey, was the amount of time consumed for a round trip of a garbage truck to the Burdell dump. Although the company's statement shows the trip takes three and one-half hours, Brewer said average time for the city's investigators showed 1 hour, 31½ minutes.

"It's impossible for anyone to go to the Burdell Ranch, dump a load of garbage, and return in an hour and a half," Mrs. Booth countered. "I defy anyone to try it."

Tam High District Schools Join For College Program

A joint college information program will be held in the Tamalpais Union High School District this year to replace the individual "college night" programs usually scheduled by Tamalpais, Drake and Redwood high schools.

Set for Oct. 21, at Redwood, the new "college day" was worked out as a propect this summer by Miss Mardys Whiteman, English instructor and counselor at Redwood. She said representatives from 80 colleges and universities have been invited to afternoon sessions for students and evening meetings with parents.

Prior to Oct. 21, counselors will meet with P-TA units in each school and also with student body segments. Information will also be sent to students and parents so all concerned will be properly prepared, Miss Whiteman said.

Measles, Mumps Top List Of Diseases

Fifteen cases of communicable disease were reported in Marin County during the week ending Aug. 15, it was announced today by Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, M.D.

Reports included four cases of measles and three of mumps in San Rafael.

County Board To Take Look At Jr. Museum

An appeal "not for money but for a long-range study" of the Junior Museum of Marin was made yesterday before the Marin County Board of Supervisors, who recently turned down a $500 appropriation request.

A. L. Nieri, president of the museum board, made the appeal. Supervisor Vera L. Schultz was candid in explaining basis for the fund denial—"it was not that the museum seemed undeserving, but its financial life seemed tenuous."

What finally happened, after an opinion by the county counsel and a number of emotional speeches by museum supporters, was that the supervisors decided to go have a look at noontime Sept. 8.

AIDED BY SCHOOLS

Nieri listed various "good people" recruited for the board "who feel it (the museum) a good project," said six school districts have signed contracts to support the museum on a basis of 10 cents for each enrolled child, and went on:

"We ask study of the project—what it means to Marin County. That article in the paper that the board had decided to delete our item hurt us. It means $500, but what was worst was the feeling we were not considered important."

Then Supervisor Schultz started to explain.

"It didn't seem $500 would keep the museum alive," said she. "It seemed about to collapse. If it is actually in better condition, its life isn't dependent on that money."

FUSSELMAN COMMENTS

"Now that they don't need the money, you'd give it?" asked Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Supervisor Schultz persisted that the museum "apparently is not receiving membership support, and having to turn to public funds to keep it alive."

"We are struggling always. We have been to keep going," said Nieri. "Since the Junior League left there has been a hole in our pocketbook—it's been nip and tuck. We have projects coming up to bring money in, but it's tough."

But if the institution keeps on, it may well become "a national museum" in time, Nieri optimistically concluded.

COUNSEL'S ADVICE

Fusselman asked if the museum couldn't "operate as a special district." County Counsel Leland H. Jordan said the county could operate a museum itself but pointed out that the Junior Museum still operates as a private project.

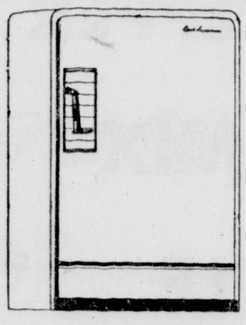

"The only way by which you could contribute funds," he said, "is on the basis that it tended to advertise the county. You can't justify it only as a praiseworthy activity."

Supervisor William A. Gnoss suggested that "we ought to make a visit, look int it, and maybe reconsider.

Survivor Describes Horror Of Cries Of Quake Victims

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP) — "It was horrible," an earthquake survivor said today.

"The children were screaming for help, crying for their mothers," said Mrs. Clarence Scott of Fresno, who came out of the heavily hit Rock Creek area.

"Husbands begged their wives to answer.

"Someone was screaming for help from anyone who could swim.

"I looked where there had been trailers and tents. They were gone."

Mrs. Scott was in her trailer when the quake rocked the popular vacation area late Monday night.

"There was a huge noise. It sounded like a thousand winds going through the trees but not a tree was moving.

"Something struck our trailer and pushed it up against a tree. The sides and end of the trailer fell off. My husband was gone. I found him just wandering around. He had been in the mud under a tree and managed to squeeze free."

Ray Painter of Ogden, Utah, told of living through those same moments.

"I could not hear my wife but I could hear the kiddies crying and I knew some of them were alive. I begged someone to help lift the tree off my leg. I thought it had cut my leg off. Finally three guys got it off. I found the kids first, then my wife. She had a broken leg."

FAMILY REUNITED

Although injured and shaken, the Painters had a comforting reunion—all were alive.

F. A. Bennett, 45, a Coeur D'Alene, Ida., truck driver, was vacationing with his wife and four children.

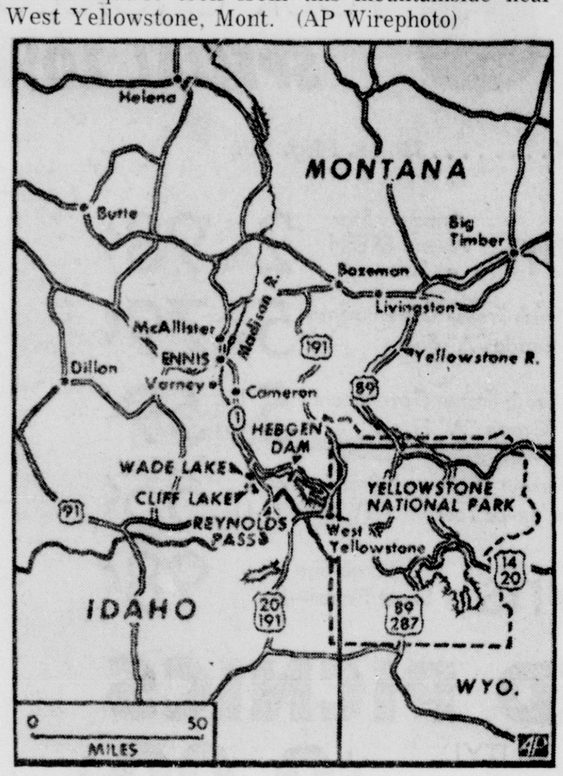

Battered and bruised, Mrs. Bennett spoke through swollen lips from her bed in the small, over-crowded hospital at Ennis, Mont.

"There was this great sound," she said. "I found myself rolling along with trees, rocks and water.

HASN'T LOST FAITH

"I really don't know how I got out of it. They say my husband and three of the children are dead. But I have not lost faith in God. I know they will be found."

Mrs. Bennett's husband, their daughters, Carole 17, and Susan, 5, and son, Tom, 11, were listed among the dead. Another son, Phillip, was in the hospital with his mother. He is expected to recover.

THE DAMAGE AREA — This map shows places in Montna, Idaho and Wyoming that were hardest hit by yesterday's series of earthquakes. Cracks developed at Hebgen Dam. Landslides blocked the Madison River Valley. And a number of the towns reported deaths, injuries, or heavy damage. (AP Wirephoto)

OLD FAITHFUL NOT HARMED BY BIG QUAKE

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK, Wyo. (AP)—Old Faithful spouted on its regular schedule today, unharmed by the earthquake which spread devastation in this scenic area.

The famous geyser gushed steam and boiling water every hour just as it has done for centuries.

Park rangers said the terrific quake easily could have shut off Old Faithful.

The quake, felt heavily in the park Monday night, damaged picturesque Old Faithful inn.

Earthquake Moves Third Of Mountain

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—A mountain blasted by an earthquake "looked like someone took a big scoop out of it from top to bottom," an aerial observer says.

H. A. Frank of Butte flew over the quake area yesterday.

"At least a third of the mountain was moved. I never saw anything like it in my life. It is about a mile square," he said.

Shattered Mountain Top Narrowly Misses Family

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)—A quake-shattered mountain cast its top within 50 feet of an Arizona family of campers.

The mother, Mrs. Henry Bennett, 35, of Cottonwood, is recovering today from shock. Her husband, their son Royal, 10, and daughter Janet escaped injury.

The Bennetts were camped in Rocky Creek Park when the quake hit about midnight Monday.

Mrs. Bennett and her children dragged Bennett, an invalid, in a sleeping bag up a mountainside to safety.

Half an hour later the Bennett's car and trailer were under water.

Royal said he saw a car occupied by a man and a woman and crippled boy carried away by the avalanche. A falling tree crushed another trailer.

The Bennett family was evacuated by helicopter.

"This was the first time I'd ever rode in a helicopter," said Royal. "And it was the first time I'd ever been in an earthquake. Now I'm going home by train, the first time I've ever had a ride on a train."

"If it weren't for people being killed and hurt, it would have been a lot of fun."

Quake Was One Of Biggest In U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The disasterous earthquake which struck Montana Monday night was one of the strongest tembors ever recorded in the United States.

It was recorded as having a magnitude of 7¾ on the Richter scale by seismographs at the University of California at Berkeley, although instruments at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena recorded it as 7.1.

Other tremors have taken far more lives and caused greater damage because they occurred in heavily populated areas, but the Montana quake ranks high on the magnitude scale.

Sausalito Approves List Of Road Projects

The Sausalito City Council last night approved a schedule of street projects to be financed from gasoline tax funds totaling some $25,000, as recommended by City Engineer John L. Hunter, but only after lengthy discussion as to whether sea wall improvements might be included.

Highest priority was given to replacement of sections of curb and gutter on Bridgeway between Princess and North streets, estimated to cost $900.

Other approved projects in order of priority were: Replace shoulders on Bridgeway between Napa and Spring streets, $6,400; Resurface Bulkley avenue from Princess street 300 feet south, $720; resurface Alexander avenue, $1,530; resurface intersection at Bulkley-Atwood-Harrison, $254.

Hunter recommended these jobs be completed before the start of the rainy season.

Next in order of priority and estimated to cost $11,402 is widening of the bottleneck turn at the southern end of Bridgeway where it meets Richardson street, widening the turn, Hunter said, will involve purchasing some private property and moving a house.

Hunter suggested a master plan for sea wall work should be prepared separate from street work. The dangerous portion of the wall, he said, is north of the North street intersection. "One good southeast storm could take out that portion of the wall back to the pavement," he declared.

A final gas tax project recommended by Hunter was resurfacing of Second street between Richardson and South street, estimated to cost $3,600.

Possible improvement in the water distribution system in the southern end of "old town" section of Sausalito was revived with the reading of a report from Councilman George E. Keeney, who was absent last night.

The report indicated the problem involves a lack of adequate storage facilities at the southern end of the city.

City Manager Donald A. Duerr reported he is working with Marin Municipal Water District officials in an effort to locate a suitable site for a storage tank. Plans are being made to increase the capacity of the tank on Crescenta lane, he said.

The Sausalito council also:

1. Introduced a resolution authorizing the Sausalito Woman's Club to select and dedicate certain trees in public areas.
2. Acknowledged receipt of an award from the California State Automobile Assn. commending the city for the third successive year of no reportable pedestrian traffic accidents.
3. Approved 10-minute parking at the site of the new post office and restored 60-minute parking at the old site when the move is made.
4. Received a financial report from Duerr noting that public utility assessments were up about 13 per cent, more than offsetting lower property assessment figures.
5. Approved an application by Rudy Lang Jr. for Helen Louise Conser for annexation of 1.6 acres at Waldo Point for apartment construction, with stipulations as to land coverage and site improvements.
6. Referred back to the planning commission a request by developer Morden Dunn to rezone to commercial a portion of the area on the south side of Nevada street.
7. Appointed Robert E. McCabe to the planning commission, succeeding Richard F. Grambow, resigned.
8. Granted an encroachment permit to Sam Zakessian for construction of a concrete ramp on Turney street.
9. Approved an amendment to a contract with Mark-a-Line, Inc., for installation of off-street parking facilities permitting a 6½ per cent interest rate instead of the approved 6 per cent. Duerr said the work was being held up because the contractor was unable to locate 6 per cent money.
10. Denied Alfred H. Cassidy of 6 Vista Clara a permit to construct separate apartments for servants at his home.

All council actions were unanimous. Absent were Councilmen Keeney and Philip S. Ehrlich Jr., as well as City Atty. John B. Ehlen.

Hub Council Confirms New Police Chief

On the recommendation of City Atty. John G. Buresh, the San Anselmo City Council last night officially went on record as confirming the appointment of Raymond R. Buchignani as the city's new chief of police.

Councilman Carmel H. Booth cast the lone dissenting vote.

"I am happy that Ray is chief and I am sure he will be a good man in the job," she said. "But I am still for Sam Serio."

(Asst. Police Chief Sam Serio did not take the civil service examination for police chief.)

TO TAKE OATH

Also on the recommendation of Buresh, the council agreed to swear in the new chief formally at the regular meeting on Sept. 8. Buchignani signed a printed oath of office before the city clerk, but has not taken the oath publicly.

In discussing Buchignani's recent appointment as chief by City Manager Arthur W. Brewer, the question was raised as to whether the city manager had the power to appoint a chief.

Councilman Carleton G. Little maintained that Brewer had the power to promote and had merely promoted Buchignani who formerly was a sergeant. (The police exam was limited to officers on the San Anselmo force.)

"To take a man off the eligible list and move him up is the same as appointing him," Mrs. Booth said

"It is for technical reasons like this that I suggest the formal appointment by the council," Buresh said

UPCOMING EXAM

The police department came in for further discussion last night when Brewer announced that six members of the force are eligible for a forthcoming competitive examination for sergeant.

With Mrs. Booth casting the dissenting vote, the council agreed it would determine whether scores on the written examination to be given by the state Cooperative Personnel Services, would be adjusted.

Such a move gives the council the right to raise a score to a passing mark of 70, thus allowing the applicant to take the oral examination, if the council deems the move adviseable.

Such a possibility might occur, Brewer explained, if only one man passed the written test but others failed by scores very close to a passing mark.

Donors Needed By Blood Reserve

The Marin County Blood Reserve has issued a call for donors to replenish the supply for San Rafael, Ross and Marin General Hospitals.

The Irwin Memorial Blood Bank "bloodmobile" will be at the San Rafael Elks Club from 2:30 to 6:30 p.m. Friday to receive blood donations.

HUB CONSIDERS LAW

Neighbors Object To House Trailer

Objections by 41 neighborhood residents to a house trailer parked in a front yard at Prospect and Barber avenues prompted the San Anselmo City Council last night to instruct the city attorney to investigate a possible anti-trailer law.

"We might draw up an ordinance limiting them to back yards and out of sight of neighbors," City Atty. John G. Buresh said, "but eliminating them altogether would certainly violate someone's constitutional rights."

A group of the petitioners present at last night's meeting assured the council they did not want to eliminate trailers entirely but merely wanted them out of sight.

In other action last night, the San Anselmo council:

1. Called for sealed bids on improvement of Ash avenue, to be opened Sept. 16, after no protests were heard against establishment of an assessment district.
2. Rejected city endorsement of a proposal by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen that profit making establishments pay for county health department inspections of their premises.
3. Approved sale of 13 parcels of tax deeded property at the forthcoming county tax sale, while earmarking for city purchase a parcel at the junction of Forest, Landsdale, Center and Humboldt.

Higher City Tax Rate Looms In San Anselmo

The San Anselmo City Council last night approved the valuation of the city at $20,906,800 not including public utilities and the unsecured tax roll.

Following completion this week of total valuation figures by City Manager Arthur W. Brewer, the council is expected to set the 1959-60 tax rate at an adjourned meeting next Monday night.

The new figure is expected to be considerably above last year's rate of $1.30 per $100 assessed valuation.

Included in the valuation compiled to date was land valued at $6,886,910, improvements amounting to $15,183,220 personal property at $997,050, and exemptions totaling $2,160,380.

The council completed their sessions as a board of equalization last night, including in the valuation figures adjustments made by them in assessed values protested.

Major cause of the expected increase in the new tax rate is a special 26-cent levy proposed by Brewer for purchasing additional land needed for eventual widening of Sir Francis Drake boulevard.

Board Delays Contract For Tunnel

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday opened bids for the proposed San Pedro road underpass — a tunnel that is planned for the safety of school children — but delayed awarding a contract because of property owner opposition.

Mrs. Ray Trenchard of 4 Manderly road, San Rafael, said she and several other residents believe the tunnel will not reduce traffic hazards, and possible, will produce even more dangerous conditions.

She sought a delay until other residents of the area are informed more thoroughly about the plan and until a public meeting is held

The supervisors told her that bids can be held 30 days. The tunnel is a joint project of the county and the San Rafael Elementary School District.

Fairfax School Tax Meeting Slated Aug. 26

Plans for an organizational meeting Aug. 26 to rally support for a tax-increase for the Fairfax School District, which is to be voted on Oct. 20, were outlined last night by Supt. Harold R. De Pue.

De Pue told the Fairfax district board that letters have been mailed inviting attendance at the organizational session, which will seek to give facts as to why taxpayers should take an increase from $1.25 to $2 taxation per $100 assessed valuation during the five-year period 1960-65.

PRE-SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Mrs. Gladys Zumwalt, assistant superintendent in charge of instruction, reported on plans for pre-school sessions on training and orientation.

She said a superintendent's council workshop will be held for one week starting next Monday, to be attended by eight principals, two assistant superintendents and the superintendent. The group will meet jointly with its counterpart in San Rafael Monday through Wednesday.

Orientation for teachers new to the district starts Aug. 31 and will continue for three days, Mrs. Zumwalt said. Arithmetic workshop sessions for all teachers will be held as a series of four, starting Sept. 23 and continuing with two more in October and one in December.

RECRUITING REVIEWED

The superintendent gave a detailed recapitulation of spring recruitment activities. A new 80-page administrative manual was discussed.

Resignation of Carolyn Zinn as a teacher for the seventh grade of the Manor School was accepted. She will return to university study. As her replacement Mrs. Ann Meyer, 24, was approved. She received an A.B. Degree from University of Utah in 1957 and has taught in Salt Lake City for a year.

BASEBALL HUDDLE—Representatives of the two major leagues and projected third league at meeting yesterday. From left are, seated: Branch Rickey, newly-named president of Continental League; Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, and Bill Shea, New York, chairman of new league's founding group, and standing: Gerald Moore, Minneapolis-St. Paul; Jack Kent Cooke, Toronto; Craig Cullinan, Houston; Walter Orr, New York attorney; Bob Howsam, Denver, all of new league; National League President Warren Giles; American League President Joe Cronin, and Dwight Davis, New York, also of new league. (AP Wirephoto)

New League Heads Seek To Fill Loop

NEW YORK (UPI)—The newly-formed Continental League, bursting with increased confidence as a result of president Branch Rickey's first meeting yesterday with baseball's top brass, turned today to its next big job, the selection of three more cities to complete the eight-team loop.

"All eight clubs will have a team on the field in 1961 without any question," said the 77-year-old Rickey, who was named yesterday as first president of the proposed third major league.

The beetle-browed, cigar-smoking Rickey declared that his confidence in the new league's future was boosted by his meeting with Commissioner Ford Frick and other top officials of organized baseball yesterday because "all my anticipations were fully realized as to their cooperation."

NEXT PROJECT

William A. Shea, the dynamic New York attorney who sparked the new league as chairman of the founders' group, pin-pointed Rickey's first major task as league head when he disclosed that picking three more franchise cities is "our very next project."

Five cities already are in the Continental loop as "founding cities"—New York, Denver, Houston, Toronto, and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

The three additions, which will be picked "on the basis of applications and further analysis" according to Shea, are expected to come from among Buffalo, N.Y., Atlanta, Miami, Fla., Seattle, San Diego, Montreal, Dallas-Fort Worth, and San Juan, P.R.

A three-man group representing Atlanta was scheduled to discuss its case with Shea today. The group, composed of Chicago attorneys Robert Chatz and Jack Shaffer and investor Lee Stern, holds an option on the Atlanta franchise of the Southern Association for which present owner Earl Mann is asking $1,200,000.

NEED PLAYERS

"If the Continental League will operate by 1961—and it certainly looks as if it will—we want to make sure that Atlanta interests are represented," said Shaffer.

Even before the league's lineup is set, however, Rickey is moving on toward the solution of what has been called the new loop's biggest problem—where it will get the approximately 280 players it needs.

Rickey, president Warren Giles of the National League, and president Joe Cronin of the American League were appointed by Frick yesterday as a special committee to investigate this problem. Rickey lost no time in buttonholing Giles and Cronin and making a date for the committee's first meeting. (The date was not revealed).

Shea was asked the big question about players and he replied, "We expect to get the players that are in baseball."

McElhenny Moved To Flanker Spot In 49er Lineup

MORAGA (AP)—Coach Red Hickey has moved Hugh McElhenny to flanker back from his running halfback spot with the San Francisco 49ers pro football team.

Indicating that Hurryin' Hugh actually will become a third running back, Hickey said yesterday he wanted to use McElhenny's ability as a pass receiver. With the 49ers seven seasons, McElhenny played left end in five games in 1957 and infrequently as a flanker last season.

If sophomore Jim Pace's knee injury is healed, he will replace McElhenny at left half with rookies Leon Burton and Luther Carr spelling him, Hickey said.

The 49ers, who meet the Green Bay Packers in an exhibition here Sunday, held a light workout. Then they studied movies of Saturday's Green Bay-Chicago Bear exhibition.

HANLEY'S REPORT

Giants Open Last Series Of Season In Milwaukee

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

This is the last trip of the Giants into Milwaukee this year.

It is a two-game visit. A sweep of both games by the Giants would bring them even for the year with the Braves who hold a 10-8 edge in the 18 games played.

Of those 10 wins, Warren Spahn logged four; Lou Burdette, three, and Joey Jay, Bob Rush and Bob Buhl, one each.

Sam Jones has been the big winner for the Giants over the Braves with four; Jack Sanford, two; Mike McCormick, one, and Gordon Jones, one in relief.

The last time Sam Jones and Sanford faced the Braves was in Seals Stadium during that crucial August 4-5-6 three-game series. That series may well be referred to as the turning point for the Giants if they go on to win the National League pennant.

Spahn threw a three-hitter Tuesday night, August 4, at the Giants who denied him a shutout in the ninth when Willie Kirkland's double scored Felipe Alou. It still was an easy 6-1 win for Spahn.

MORE IMPORTANT, it moved the Braves into first place one percentage point ahead of the Giants.

Wednesday afternoon, August 5, Sanford pitched his teammates into the league lead again with a 4-1 victory. The following afternoon, Sam Jones beat the Braves 7-1.

Willie McCovey was doing great things for the Giants at that time. The rookie hit two homers off Buhl, Sanford's opponent, one of them a two-run blast in the eighth to put the lid on the 4-1 win.

McCovey drove in the first run against Burdette, Jones' opponent, and scored the second himself in the opening inning. Those two runs would have been enough to beat Burdette but Eddie Bressoud's three-run homer and a solo circuit smash by Willie Mays made it decisive.

Just as the chips were down in the August 4-5-6 series, they are down again in this two-game affair. They might even be a little bit bluer this time because the games are running out in the 154-game schedule.

IT WAS SURPRISING to read what Ernie Banks had to say after the Giants were on their way out of Chicago last Sunday night.

Banks went on the radio and accused Jack Sanford of deliberately hitting him in the shoulder with a fast ball in last Saturday's game—the only one the Giants won in the four-game Cub series.

"It's one thing to brush a batter back but it's another matter when you deliberately aim a bean ball at him," Banks was quoted as saying.

Immediately after Saturday's game, Banks refused to accuse Sanford of throwing at him. After 24 hours he changed his mind. Was it changed by persistent and suggestive questioning?

The fact that Banks played the entire game Sunday and hit a two-run homer (his 36th) indicated he wasn't hurt as much as the initial reports said.

Sanford reiterated his first statement that he never has intentionally thrown at any batter.

BASEBALL ROUNDUP

Giants Face Braves As Dodgers Close In

MILWAUKEE (AP)—San Francisco's Giants, with the hot breath of the Los Angeles Dodgers on the back of their necks, moved into Milwaukee for a two-game series opening tonight against the third-place Braves.

Big Don Newcombe, the former Dodger who now pitches for Cincinnati, trimmed the Giants' first place lead to two games over Los Angeles last night by shutting out the San Franciscans 7-0 on eight hits while the Dodgers were beating the Braves, 7-6 in 13 innings.

The Giants are sending out Jack Sanford (12-9) to pitch the opener against the Braves' Lew Burdette (16-12). Sanford is 2-3 against the Braves and Burdette is 3-2 against the Giants.

NOW 5-1

Newcombe (11-6) now has a 5-1 record against the Giants. He allowed only two men to get as far as third and was never in any danger after the opening inning.

Jackie Brandt doubled in the first inning for the Giants and got to third on Jose Pagan's single, but was caught trying to reach the plate on a bouncer hit by Willie Mays.

In the third inning Pagan singled and moved to third on Orlando Cepeda's blow but was unable to get any farther.

Aside from those mild threats, Newcombe was in complete control. He didn't walk a man and struck out four while pitching his first victory in a month.

FISHER LOSER

Singles by Whitey Lockman and Frank Robinson and a double by Gus Bell produced two runs for the Redlegs in the first inning and started rookie pitcher Eddie Fisher on the way to defeat. In two innings, the Rhinelanders got to the youngster for eight blows and five runs.

Vada Pinson singled, Bell homered, Robinson singled and Ed Bailey and Eddie Kasko doubled as Cincinnati scored four times in the third inning.

The other run was in the fourth when Lockman and Bell singled and Robinson hit a fly.

Jim Davenport, Giant third baseman who wrenched his knee Monday sliding home, is expected to miss the Milwaukee series.

The Dodgers, winning two in a row for the first time in more than two weeks, closed in on the Giants by beating southpaw ace Warren Spahn, the Braves' seventh pitcher, for the fifth time this season.

BLOW LEAD

The Dodgers, booting away what was left of a 5-1 lead when the Braves scored an unearned run in the ninth, put it away when Wally Moon tripled and Rip Repulski singled off Spahn (16-12). It was Spahn's third relief chore of the year—and he has lost 'em all, dropping two to the Dodgers, who have a 30-14 edge over the lefty veteran.

Rookie Norm Sherry (4-2) won it, blanking the Braves without a hit for 2⅔ innings in relief of Don Drysdale after Hank Aaron's second home run of the game, his 33rd, had deadlocked it 6-6 in the 11th. The Dodgers had scored off Spahn in the 11th on a walk, Repulski's pinch single and a sacrifice fly by pinch-hitter Gil Hodges.

Philadelphia defeated St. Louis 2-1 in the only other NL game.

The Phillies won it on Richie Ashburn's two-out single in the seventh, breaking a 1-1 tie and beating rookie Bob Miller (1-2). Jim Owens (9-10) went all the way for the Phils, allowing 10 hits but leaving nine on base, walking none and striking out seven.

In the American League, Chicago's White Sox took a 4½-game lead—largest of the season—by beating Baltimore 6-4 on Gerry Staley's three innings of one-hit shutout relief and Nellie Fox's two-out, two-run double in the eighth. Washington handed second-place Cleveland a fourth straight defeat, 11-4.

New York beat Detroit 5-3 and Boston defeated Kansas City 5-4.

SERIES IN NEW GIANT STADIUM COULD BE GOOFY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Playing a World Series in Candlestick Stadium—IF the Giants win the National League pennant—could be much more than a West Coast first. It could be the goofiest.

There'll be a backstop, foul line poles and players' lockers.

But the 11-million-dollar ball park on San Francisco Bay won't be completed. The public address system probably will be a mobile job. It may be a major project to get a bag of peanuts or a beer.

There may be little if any system to the parking and it may take patience and time to get to your seat. Don't expect outfield signs giving fence distances.

Poles from which to fly the American flag and the major league team pennants probably will be missing.

Dempsey In Fight Scene

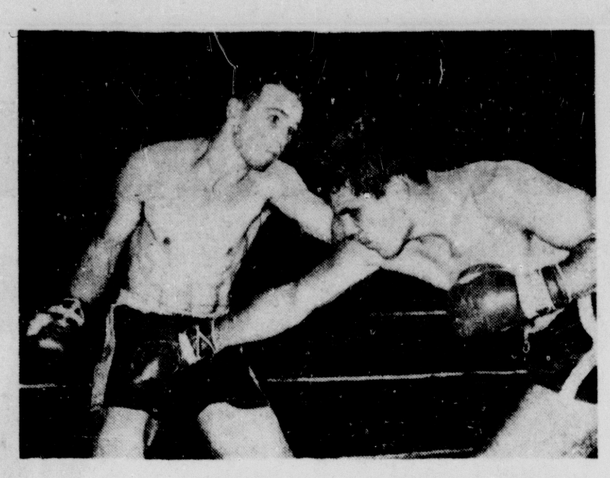

NEW YORK (AP)—An old-time promoter was back in the fight game today to help solve some of the confusion surrounding the heavyweight championship.

Jack Dempsey, now 64, was hired yesterday as promotional director and adviser to the embattled Rosensohn Enterprises which still hopes to stage a return world heavyweight championship bout between Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson on Sept. 22. Johansson won the title from Patterson last June 26.

Dempsey has been out of the promoting dodge for a long time but he had a couple of good ones in his day. His last one was the Max Baer-Max Schmeling bout in 1933. A couple of years before that he handled the Baer-Paulino Uzcudun battle in Reno.

And, of course, Dempsey had some experience in the ring. This is a salaried post for the ex-heavyweight champion and he emphasized that he has no stock in the corporation.

The company had its promoter's license suspended by the New York State Athletic Commission because of "statements" made by Bill Rosensohn, ex-head of Rosensohn Enterprises in a magazine article.

Moore, Bassey In Televised Title Fight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — World featherweight champion Davey Moore risks his title tonight against the man he dethroned five months ago, Hogan (Kid) Bassey of Nigeria.

The 15-round, nationally televised scrap is scheduled to go on at the Olympic Auditorium at 7 p.m., PDT. It will be televised nationally over the ABC network (Chan. 7).

The 25-year-old champion from Springfield, Ohio, remained a 3-1 betting favorite to keep the rule of the world's 126-pounders in the United States.

Soft-speaking, hard-hitting Davey overpowered his 27-year-old rival and stopped him in 13 rounds in a brawl last March 18 that was a sizzler all the way.

Moore, with a record of 13 knockouts in his 36 wins in 42 fights, is rated the harder puncher. The "King," as Bassey's countrymen named him on a grand tour of Nigeria last fall, has stopped 20 foes in 67 bouts.

Bassey won the vacant featherweight title in 1956 when he stopped Cherif Hamia of France in 10 rounds. He successfully defended it here when he knocked out Pjarito Moreno of Mexico in three rounds.

How To Get Rid Of Beanball? Why, Simply Abolish Baseball

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — The beanball contretemps, provoked when the Giants' Jack Sanford plunked the Cubs' Ernie Banks in the back has the baseball masterminds seeking a solution again today but there's only one real way to end beanings for all time.

That's to abolish baseball.

Because as long as you have a jackrabbit ball which is manufactured to ride prodigious distances, the pitcher of necessity must "loosen up" the hitter who is taking a toehold in the batter's box. No pitcher intends to cripple a rival, or put his career in jeopardy, but the "brush back" pitch is about the only counter weapon the pitcher has left.

There is, of course, a fine line of demarcation between the "bean ball" and the "brush back." It is only as wide as the pitcher's control and with the winning run in scoring position both become more narrow.

Banks charged that Sanford hit him deliberately on the mere grounds that Sanford's control is too good to make such a mistake. Sanford, of course, denied the allegation. On the weight of very flimsy evidence you have to settle for Sanford's denial.

Banks is not noted as a mind reader. Neither are the umpires who, being in just as good a position as Banks, if there was any hint of intentional mayhem would have been called upon to eject Sanford posthaste.

In the first place, wildness cannot be legislated out of the game. If such was the case, the first pitcher who gave up a walk would be sent to the minor leagues.

Pitchers, when they resort to the "brush back" pitch—and most of them do from time to time — are not attempting to hit the batter. They are trying to shake him up and throw a scare into him to keep him from standing rooted in perfect confidence to knock the ball out of the park.

Baseball has had only one fatality because of a player being struck by a pitched ball. However, a number of careers have been ended or ruined, the most notable being Joe Medwick and Mickey Cochrane. The net result, and the only one possible, was introduction of a plastic helmet which the batters now wear.

When a batter is struck, usually it is an accident on both sides. Yet there have been a number of players who, to give the pitchers their due, specialized in being struck as a means of getting on base. Hughie Jennings was hit 49 times in one season. Frankie Crosetti was another such expert in drawing a free ride to first base. Peewee Reese also was adept in just being missed — or just being hit.

It brings back a story about the pitcher who was accused by a rival hitter of throwing a "duster."

"You'd throw at your own grandmother," the hitter stormed.

"I certainly wouldn't," the pitcher retorted. "But, of course, I might brush her back a little."

Even the nice guys who finish first have to protect themselves in the clinches.

Red Looking Ahead To Next Season

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The 1959 season is running out on Red Schoendienst but the Milwaukee Brakes' veteran second baseman is looking ahead to next year.

Schoendienst battling back from a bout with tuberculosis, is finding it tougher than he expected to get into condition.

"The doctor won't allow me to run much, and running is baseball," the 36-year-old redhead said.

Schoendienst rejoined the Braves and donned his No. 4 uniform this week for his first appearance in Milwaukee County Stadium since the World Series last fall.

"I feel good — very good," he said with a big grin.

Often called the sparkplug of Milwaukee's National League champions the past two years, Schoendienst still is hopeful of being able to help the Braves in September. But it appears doubtful.

SPORTSMEN SPONSOR

KTIM Plans Expanded High Sports Coverage

Plans are in full swing for an expanded schedule of Marin County High School athletic broadcasts during the 1959-60 season, KTIM sports director Ted Mitchell announced today.

The KTIM Sportsman's Club, composed of leading Marin business men, will sponsor at least fifteen live sportscasts this season, said Mitchell. Last year the group presented ten games in the three major fields of sport.

The Sportsman's Club, "dedicated to greater Marin high school athletics through recognition and public appreciation," is planning a full schedule of football broadcasts, plus top basketball and baseball contests.

Listed for the football season are games between Redwood and Marin Catholic, Novato vs. St. Elizabeth's of Oakland, Redwood vs. Mission, Tamalpais vs. Novato, Redwood vs. Encinal, Novato vs. Drake, Redwood vs. Drake, and Novato at John Swett, Pittsburg (tentative).

Mitchell, who resigned his coaching duties at Tamalpais to devote more time to his broadcast work, said six Marin County League basketball games are set for broadcast, plus a portion of the annual league tournament.

Also on the list are five league baseball games.

The first definitely scheduled game is the Redwood-Mission tilt at Kentfield on October 3, starting at 3 p.m., with the possibility that the KTIM microphones may be taken to Pittsburg on the preceding day for the Novato-Jim Swett game.

Could Be Some Of The Giants Are Kicking The Gong Around At Night

CONNOLLY

I can't quite decide which is the biggest bore—"Confucius Say" gags or "Is Cepeda worth more money than Willie Mays" arguments.

Both are prominent members of the S.F. Giants and earning a bit more than a starving wage.

Mays, after 10 years service, gets $80,000 salary.

Cepeda, with two years of play, earns $17,500.

So last week in a foolish moment I chided the Giants for under-paying Cepeda and over-paying Willie Mays.

The first guy to clobber me was my friend and compatriot of the old days in the Hearst Service, Garry Schumacher, currently the drum-thumper for the Giants.

"I don't follow you," Schumacher said by way of sticking the fork into me.

"We've drawn more than a million fans through the turnstiles on the road," says Garry. "And who do you think is responsible for that crowd?"

"Nobody but Willie Mays. He is the greatest gate attraction on the road the Giant have. People flock to the ball park to see him. And regardless of how wonderful Orlando Cepeda is, they still think Mays is the number one gate attraction."

WHICH MAKES sense, except that Mister Schumacher forgets that maybe Cepeda is carrying the ball club on the field and Mays at the gate.

The Giant management can thank their lucky stars that Cepeda is hitting like he is, rather than complaining that Mays is falling way below expectations.

I'd personally like to have the 25 per cent cut in salary that Mays is going to get next year.

Mays, since he came to S.F. hasn't lived up to his advance notices. By that I mean he has not been so spectacular as we have been led to believe he was in the East.

Willie, to my mind, likes the S.F. weather. It is siesta time for him after playing in the hot weather back East.

MOST OF THE married men on the Giants play pretty steady ball. By that I mean they are as good on the road as they are at home.

But the single guys, so it seems, go places and do things when at home where there is no curfew hanging over their head.

I am told, and in secret, that Orlando Cepeda, the wild bull of the Puerto Ricans, sits up nights, either at home or at the Sinola Cafe, and listens to the music.

I am also told that recently a Giant pitcher was picked up at 18th and Castro and didn't know where he lived.

SO WHEN YOU find out that the Giants are in a slump, it could be one of many things. And some of them could be charged to kicking the gong around.

And remember I have no star and don't want one . . . especially if it is of the highway patrol type.

Top hands on high-country hauls!

Ask any trucker who's been over Wolf Creek Pass, 10,850 feet up in the San Juans: a 9-mile pull to the summit and low gear all the way down. Mr. C. H. Phillips of Alamosa, Colorado, has a 6403 and a 6503 Chevrolet truck that are up over this route the year round, taking sheep and beef to pasture, later marketing the stock in Denver. In less than a year, his Chevy middleweights have averaged about 50,000 miles of this kind of treatment—and they're going stronger than ever!

Watch Chevy trucks at work out in range country. It's a sight to see the way they pack into high-up mountain pastures and handle through brush and rock like a cowman's favorite cutting horse. Take any truck work for that matter. Chevy middleweights probably handle a bigger variety of jobs than any trucks alive. About anything you name, including work that used to be reserved strictly for bigger rigs. When a truck's built the way a Chevy is, lean-muscled and rawhide-tough, it takes to ugly trails the same way most trucks roll over the highway. It just keeps going, without a big to-do, but looking good every mile of the way. How they do it is your Chevrolet dealer's department. He'll be glad to supply details and specifications on the type of models you need.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck! CHEVROLET

BEAM . . . World's finest bourbon since 1795

JIM BEAM

For 164 years . . . one Beam family, one purpose always—the world's finest bourbon.

T. JEREMIAH, son of Col. James Beam, is 5th generation head of the house of Beam. He superintends the making of Beam bourbon from the purchasing of the grain to the taste-testing of matured whiskey.

CARL, 5th generation, Beam's Master Distiller—supervises the production of Beam bourbon, ably assisted by sixth generation members, Booker and Baker.

What makes Beam bourbon taste so good? More than anything—it is the fact that today, as for 164 years, it is still the Beams who make BEAM, under the same Beam formula, in Kentucky where bourbon was born. That's why you can always buy Beam bourbon with trust.

The greatest selection of cold cuts both in our food and meat departments. All kinds of paper napkins, clothes, dishes, cups, etc. If your destination is not too far take "brown and serve" items from our giant freezer—they defrost while you travel—ready for fixing at your picnic site. Campers might well stock up on basic items before leaving for remote areas. Food stores off the beaten path often have to price food items much higher than Drake due to extra transportation costs. Any Drake staff member will be glad to help you plan your list of foods for either picnic or camp. There's a lot to knowing the quality of food when you eat away from home, and you know Drake sells only the highest quality from packers you know.

SPREADING out the summer dishes for the Low Calorie Buffet Menu for Frances Dahl, left, nutritionist for the Marin County Health Department, and Wilda Jane Derryberry, Marin General Hospital dietitian. Kabobs With Sausage Are Menu Teasers

To tempt and tease your family's appetite, discover the many new and imaginative ways smoked sausage links can be used in menu planning.

The friendly flavor of these spicy sausage links provides a spaghetti sauce enthusiastically endorsed by young and old alike. Smoked sausage links act as a natural meat entree at breakfast, lunch and dinner.

But to celebrate the summer the smoked sausage links have been used in another way. According to meat expert Reba Staggs, Sausage Cucumber Kabobs is just the way to get a party in progress or the family to answer the dinner call.

SAUSAGE-CUCUMBER KABOBS

8 smoked sausage links
2 small firm tomatoes
8 slices cucumber with peel, cut ¼ inch thick
French dressing

Cut smoked sausage links diagonally into thirds. Cut tomatoes into quarters. Cut each cucumber slice in half to make 16 cucumber pieces. On each of eight 6-inch skewers, thread 3 sausage pieces, 1 tomato wedge and 2 cucumber pieces.

Place kabobs on broiler rack and brush with French dressing. Broil 3 inches from heat about 5 minutes. Turn, brush with French dressing and broil until browned, about 2 minutes. Yield: 8 kabobs.

Be Careful

When making custards or other dishes that call for hot milk, mix sugar with the egg, not with the milk.

A GOOD piece of meat for the barbecue is beef chuck, outstanding for economy and flavor, too. There are special tricks to it, so heed them carefully. Relish plate and baked potatoes will round out the meal well.

Grill Beef Chuck At Next Barbecue

A thick cut of beef chuck, either the blade-bone or the meaty round-bone choice, makes economical selection for the barbecue. The economical chuck sometimes has been overlooked in favor of steaks and ground beef.

There are special tricks in barbecuing the chuck cuts. Start first with quality beef. For best results, let the meat stand overnight in a flavorful sauce. When the coals beneath the grill are just right, barbecue the beef chuck to just the degree of doneness you and your family prefer, approximately 30 to 40 minutes total time, depending on the thickness of cut.

Throughout the cooking, liberally brush the meat with the marinade, turning the meat halfway during the cooking period. When done, slice with a sharp knife across the grain of the meat and feast happily.

Probably you will want to slice the meat thin and serve the slices in buns, which will take up the flavorful juices.

Serve with potatoes which have baked in foil over the coals, a big relish tray which offers lettuce and tomatoes and other accompaniments for the juicy beef sandwiches, as well as crisp carrots and celery for out-of-hand munching.

Ice cream from cups or cupcakes and the family's favorite beverage complete this economical beef barbecue feast.

MARINADE FOR BEEF CHUCK

1 can (1 pint, 2 fluid ounces) pineapple juice
½ cup white vinegar
¾ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
½ teaspoon garlic salt
1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice
2 teaspoonfuls Worcestershire sauce.
1 teaspoon tarragon leaves, crushed

Combine ingredients. Yield: 3 cups.

You Can Make Crab Imperial

Crabmeat imperial is the most popular entree at Commander's Palace in New Orleans. Here's how you make it.

Mix 1 finely diced green pepper with 2 finely diced pimientos, 1 tablespoon of English mustard, 1 teaspoon of salt, ½ teaspoon of white pepper, 2 eggs and 1 cup of mayonnaise. Add 3 pounds of lump crabmeat and mix with fingers so the lumps are not broken.

Heap the mixture lightly into 8 crab shells or individual casseroles. Coat lightly with mayonnaise, sprinkle with paprika and bake 15 minutes in a 350-degree oven. Serve hot or cold.

Custard Success Is Assured With Long, Slow Cooking

Treat a good egg right which means low, slow cooking and your custards will receive raves from all fortunate enough to taste them.

To prevent curdling when making custards or other dishes that call for hot milk to be added to the egg, mix sugar with the egg and not with the milk. Add hot liquids or mixtures to the beaten egg a little at a time. Don't overcook!

BASIC BAKED CUSTARD

Serve hot or cold, plain or topped with nutmeg-sprinkled whipped cream, chopped or whole maraschino cherries and some of the syrup, softened ice cream, chopped nuts, crushed pineapple, coconut, fruit or berry jam, butterscotch or chocolate syrup.

Heat 3 cups milk over boiling water. Add ¼ teaspoon salt and 6 tablespoons sugar to 4 beaten eggs. Gradually add the hot milk to the egg mixture. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla and pour into custard cups or casserole. Sprinkle lightly with nutmeg.

Place custard cups in pan of hot water and bake in moderate, 350 degree oven for 25 to 35 minutes or until custard sets

CARAMEL CUSTARD

Omit sugar and nutmeg and add ⅓ cup caramelized sugar syrup with the vanilla. To make caramelized syrup: melt ⅔ cup granulated sugar in frying pan over low heat, stirring constantly until melted and a rich brown. Add ⅔ cup hot water and continue to stir over heat until smooth and slightly thickened.

HONEY CUSTARD

Increase eggs to five. Use 1 cup honey and omit sugar and vanilla.

COCONUT CUSTARD

Sprinkle 2 tablespoons of coconut into each custard cup. Pour in custard mixture. Cook as usual.

PERK UP your picnic menu by planning to serve this Frankfurter Salad Bowl. It is simply another way the "hot dog" can lend versatility to a meal.

This Picnic Salad Is Always Popular

Picnics are just naturally part of the accepted meal pattern during August and frankfurters, more often than not, are just naturally part of the accepted menu pattern.

If you're picnic prone and enjoy this informal type of meal service, keep in mind the numerous ways in which frankfurters can help you to plan a picnic.

Reba Staggs, well-known home economist and meat expert, reminds us that since frankfurters and salads are usually very much part of the picnic menu, why not combine the two into a dish called Frankfurter Salad Bowl.

It's an easy carry-along salad and contains in addition to the frankfurters, kidney beans, sour pickles, French dressing and slices of onion.

FRANKFURTER SALAD BOWL

2 cups sliced frankfurters (7 to 8 frankfurters)
1 can (16 ounces) kidney beans
¾ cup sliced sour pickles
¾ cup French dressing
1 head lettuce (medium size)
½ large onion, sliced

Drain kidney beans. Add frankfurters, pickles and ½ cup French dressing. Chill about 1 hour. Break lettuce leaves into pieces. Alternate layers of frankfurter mixture, lettuce and onion in a shallow bowl. Pour the remaining French dressing over all. Garnish with a few onion rings. 8 servings.

Bartletts Burgundy

You can fix juicy California Bartletts and apples for this pretty fruit plate ahead of time. Just dip the halves and slices into cold salt water—1 tblsp. salt to 1 pint of water. Drain well and chill.

Make up this sparkling burgundy jelly to complement the luscious fruit: dissolve 1 pkg. grape-flavored gelatin with 1 cup hot water. Stir in ½ cup burgundy wine, a good squeeze of lemon juice and ½ cup cold water. Mold and chill firm. Unmold on pineapple ring.

Easy On Boiling Beef

Never boil beef but a very short time—if at all—because if you do the meat will be tough, stringy and dry.

Who Is More Prone To Change Women In Fashions, Men In Cars

PARIS (UPI)—The Paris dressmakers, who change women's fashions, are as gimmick conscious as the automobile manufacturers who with clocklike regularity turn out different style cars.

Both are in business to make money. And the Paris dressmakers admit it just as readily as do the merchants in Detroit.

But in both cases, it's the basic design and the quality — not the gimmicks—that bring the customers back.

There are good and bad dressmakers — even in the world's fashion capital.

But both good and bad use gimmicks to get their names across to the public. The best-known gimmick is drastically changing the skirt length, for longer or for shorter. But there are others—flattened or exaggerated busts or hips, waists that are bosom-high or hip-low.

Another pressure to which all dressmakers are prone is that of U.S. dressmaking headquarters, Seventh Avenue. They know that the hundreds of American buyers come to Paris to see clothes that are different because change is the secret of doing business, whether the business involves cars or dresses.

But critics who dismiss the high fashion business as frivolous and flossy forgot several very important things:

—That the Paris dressmakers, many of whom are women and therefore never could be tabbed effeminate, have done as much to enhance the female form as to distort. They were responsible for liberating women from corsets, shortening skirts back in the twenties and giving them the Bikini bathing suit.

FASHION GIMMICKS

—That any fashion "gimmicks" they come up with must pass the scrutiny of the world press and hard-bitten buyers before the innovations are copied down to retail prices for American women.

—That American women, who have minds of their own barely blindly follow the dictates of Paris.

—That high fashion as a whole cannot be condemned as a "frivolous" business when more than 20 thousand people in France depend on it for their livelihood and American buyers pay the equivalent of 1,000 dollars as assurance against piracy to see it shown.

The influx of American buyers, particularly since the war, has been so tremendous that many of the fashion houses chalk off the expense of their collections against their sales to the buyers.

The buyer, who sees at least five or six collections of more than 100 models each, has to choose a "winner," that is a dress that can be copied down to retail prices and that will sell.

He is looking for something adaptable to American tastes. In the case of the controversial sack he chose a number which was hard to attractively copy down to retail prices because of its subtle cut.

You can be sure that he will modify the dramatic above the kneecap skirts shown this season by Dior because he knows that American women will not wear them that short.

LESS DRAMATIC

What the buyer hopes for is a "Ford"—a model that will sell again and again. But a "Ford" by Seventh avenue standards is something less dramatic than it is by Detroit ones.

One Paris dress is said to have set a record by selling 22,000 times at retail prices in the United States.

This is small by comparison to automobile sales.

But the competition is just as rough.

Before the buyers go in to pick the winners the world press has already briefed American women on what to expect. They, in turn, already have a pre-determined idea of what they will and will not buy.

One thing that baffles people in the dress business here is why the American woman is pictured as a lamb going to the sartorial slaughter at the time of the bi-annual showings.

They contend that she is independent enough of mind to pick her own style without blindly following Paris dictates.

Some of the American men who foot the bills dispute this. They claim that the Paris dressmakers and American buyers contrive to force their wives to change their dress styles twice a year.

Grand President Pays Visit To Star Of Sea YLI

The August meeting of Star of the Sea YLI 97 held recently in Sausalito was the occasion of an official visit from the grand president, Mrs. Russell Silva. District deputy, Mrs. L. C. Emery and deputy, Miss Loretto O'Rourke, were among the 110 at the meeting.

Chairman for the evening was Mrs. Thomas Burkell, who was assisted by Mrs. Joseph DeMartini. Two new members were installed, Miss Patricia Hospador, daughter of the president, and Mrs. Christian Tvede.

"Bon Voyage" decorations, a send-off theme for Mrs. Silva's tour of many other official visits, were by Mrs. Peter Fugine and Mrs. George Kowski. A skit by Mesdames Burkell, De Martini and Honour Lopez preceded refreshments

AT PRESIDIO

Gledhill-Couture Rites In Chapel

Bruce Gledhill of Mill Valley claimed Joan Couture of San Francisco as his bride Sunday, Aug. 16, in a 2 o'clock ceremony performed at the Presidio Post Chapel in San Francisco.

For the double ring rites performed by Chaplain Pease in the presence of some 180 guests, the chapel was decorated with white gladioli, stock and chrysanthemums.

When the bride was given in marriage by her father, Edward G. Couture of San Francisco, she was wearing a chapel-length gown of white tissue taffeta designed on empire lines with scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves.

The bodice was trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls, and a coronet of the lace and pearls held her elbow length veil. She carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and butterfly orchids.

Matron of honor and best man were the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gledhill of Freemont, Calif., for whom the newly married pair had served as attendants when they were married last April.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Landeck of Stockton and Patricia Aleck of San Francisco. All wore frocks of pink Ducharme satin styled with bell skirts and bubble sleeves. Their headdresses were flat bows matching their dresses, with circular face veils. Their flowers were old-fashioned bouquets of pink and white roses, carnations and bouvardia.

Showing guests to their seats were the bride's brother, Robert Couture and Donald Landeck.

The bride's mother chose a deep aqua silk faille draped dress, matching hat and shoes and white gloves, and the mother of the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gledhill of Mill Valley, was attired in a royal blue chiffon dress, matching hat and white accessories. Each mother had a corsage of white butterfly orchids.

Following the wedding a reception for all guests was held at Forest Hill Clubhouse in San Francisco.

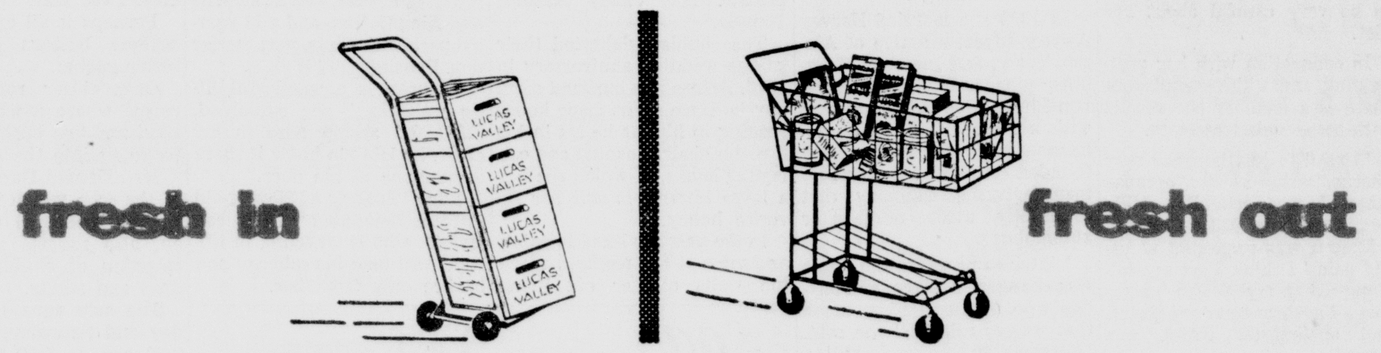

After spending several days in San Francisco the couple will fly to Quantico, Va., where Bruce will serve as a lieutenant with the U.S. Marine Corps.

Both of the young people were graduated from George Washington High School in San Francisco. The bride was graduated from San Francisco State College, where she was a member of Phi Lambda Chi Sorority.

Her husband was graduated last month from the College of the Pacific, where he was a member of Delta Upsilon Fraternity and yell leader for three years.

ONLY LIVING charter member of the Outdoor Art Club as well as the only living charter member and Past Worthy Matron of the Mill Valley Chapter 219 Order of the Eastern Star is 86-year-old Karrie Gray Klyce, above, who has lived 60 years in the same Mill Valley home. Mrs. Klyce is well known, as a clubwoman, for the verses she composed honoring special occasions and people.

86-Year-Old Carrie Gray Klyce Recalls The Early Days In Marin

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Sixty years in the same Mill Valley home, which has housed as many as five generations at one time, must be a residence record of some kind.

And this is far from the most notable thing about the owner, 86-year-old Carrie Gray Klyce.

She is the only living founder of the Outdoor Art Club, the only living charter member and a Past Worthy Matron of the Mill Valley Chapter 219, Order of the Eastern Star, and the oldest member of the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour. She is also a member of the Community Church Club —women's group of the Mill Valley Community Church — which she joined because so many friends were members.

Bright eyed and rosy cheeked as a 16-year-old, Carrie Klyce reads constantly without glasses and doesn't even have to be very careful about her diet.

In connection with her pretty pink and white complexion there is a memory she recalls with some embarrassment.

"I used to just hate my rosy checks," she said, "because when I was attending Mills Seminary (now Mills College), I knew I was suspected of using paint! I think I got my coloring from my Scotch ancestors—I'm three-quarters Scotch and one-quarter Swiss, you know."

Perhaps from her good Presbyterian Scotch ancestry too comes Mrs. Klyce's keen interest in religion and the Bible.

"My grandmother used to walk two miles to church and back on Sundays," she related, "because she wanted the horses to rest on the Sabbath.

BIBLE STUDENT

"I've been a Bible student for many years," she continued, "and I'm very much interested in history. I've written several historical manuscripts, including one of early days in Marin County, one of the Mill Valley chapter of Eastern Star and one of both my husband's and my own people. The latter on the Grays is now in the Sacramento archives."

Born in Yuba City on July 11, 1873, Carrie Gray had lost both parents by the time she was five years old and was reared by her father's sister, Mrs. Jane Pratt.

"My grandfather, James Gray, originally from Glasgow, Scotland, after crossing the plains with his family, camped for a time near where the Palace-Sheraton Hotel now stands, and later settled in Sutter County during the great gold discovery. But he was a farmer, not a miner, owning at one time 750 acres of wheat fields and fruit trees.

"I remember many of the old San Francisco landmarks, such as Woodwards Gardens, Sutro Park and baths, the various Cliff Houses and the sand dunes that stretched for miles along the ocean where Golden Gate Park is now located."

Carrie Gray lived in San Francisco, San Jose and other towns in Northern California and attended Mills Seminary before she was graduated from Chico State College.

In 1895 she married Harvey Asbury Klyce, a native of Alamo, Tenn., and member of another pioneer family. Henerich von Kleist came to this country with a member of the Studebaker family in 1763. They founded the famous carriage manufacturing company that eventually made Studebaker automobiles.

"After some years the name was changed to Klyce, and anyone who now spells the name that way is related," she said. "I understand there is still a firm of Klyce and Studebaker in Memphis, Tenn., but my husband's immediate family were builders, engineers and architects.

"Harvey came to San Francisco in 1893 and studied architecture with the famous architect John Gash. Then he went in business for himself.

"After we were married, we came directly to Mill Valley, where he built our home and about 100 others here and elsewhere in Marin County.

"I kept all of his books and typed his specifications until he moved his office to San Francisco. After the 1906 fire, he rebuilt for the Foster company one of the first structures —on bricks that were still hot —as well as the St. Francis Church on Vallejo and Columbus avenues."

Real "Old Mill Valley" is the home at 501 Throckmorton avenue where the Klyces' four children were born—two girls and two boys.

The girls are Marian Klyce Andre, a widow who has been living with her mother since her father died eight years ago, and Mrs. V. J. Marsili (Carolyne), who lives in Mill Valley with her husband, an employee of the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco. Mrs. Andre is well known in the county as the current president of the Marin Nile Club.

The sons are Melvyn H. Klyce, a builder, who also lives in Mill Valley, and Herbert Klyce of Menlo Park.

There are nine grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and two great, great grandchildren. Two grandchildren living in Marin are Melvin H. Klyce Jr. or Mill Valley and Harvey L. Klyce of San Rafael.

The Klyces became leaders in Masonic affairs, Mrs. Klyce as a worthy matron of the Mill Valley chapter of the Eastern Star, and her husband as the first master of the Mill Valley Masonic lodge and the first worthy patron of the Mill Valley chapter of Eastern Star. He was also the builder of the present Mill Valley Masonic Temple.

The couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1945. Before her husband died, Carrie Klyce spent many hours reading to him as he sat in his favorite chair. Reading and collecting books, of which she has a large library, is still her favorite hobby.

In the past she liked to paint, and some of her pictures adorn the walls of her big living room. And as a clubwoman she was well known for the verses she composed honoring special occasions and people.

Although Carrie Klyce is charming and quick to smile, and possibly one of the most loved senior citizens of the town, let no one think her philosophy of life is that of a Pollyanna.

As matriarch of a large clan, she has had considerable occasion to deal firmly with younger generations.

"My children didn't dare sass me," she said with some spirit. "I don't believe in nagging — if you're going to administer a punishment, make it a good one. But you must first be master of yourself before you can control your children."

Carrie Klyce is fond of pets too, and they return her affection. Growing older gracefully with their mistress are two big 9-year-old cats, Scaramouche and King Cotton, and a 12-year-old part Chihuahua, part terrier dog, Poncho.

"Poncho is a wonderful little watchdog," she explained. "If I fall asleep here in my chair, he lets me know if there is someone at the door."

Even Tusky, a 20-year-old tortoise belonging to her son Melvin, who is traveling in Europe, will take his cabbage and lettuce only from her.

After Mrs. Losinger was taken to a seat of honor by retiring deputy Mrs. Brownell Carpenter and an escort team of six, each carrying a bouquet of flowers, she was presented with all the flowers and a gift.

The escort team consisted of Mesdames Edward Beach, Robert Davis, Joseph Zaborowski, Eugene Stone, Daniel Byrne and Frank Reis.

Plans were made for a whist party to be held Sept. 22 at the Odd Fellows Hall. There will be awards and refreshments. The public is invited.

The meeting concluded with refreshments served by Mesdames Carpenter and James Rhoades.

'Magic Carpet' Salvage Sale Opens Tomorrow

The plot for a "lived-happily-ever-after" story is spread out among the items offered at the "Magic Carpet" Salvage Sale which opens tomorrow at the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour, Mill Valley.

The story starts with a white taffeta and lace wedding dress for the bride and correct cutaway coat and striped trousers for the bridegroom.

Two steamer trunks, a set of dishes, dining table and chairs and many other furnishings, books and records, glass decanters, dress suit and ball gown suggest more of the story, which continues with a baby buggy, bathinette and child's car seat.

Perhaps it all ends with the antique buttons and a Victorian rocker.

Only closer reading might reveal where a white lavatory bowl and two bushels of bailer twine fit into the saga.

Mrs. Donald Dunn, chairman of the sale, which is sponsored by the Episcopal Churchwomen, also reports an excellent selection of clothing for children and adults.

The sale runs through Friday and Saturday, with hours 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., except Friday, when it will be open until 9 in the evening.

Beswick Houseguests

House guests for 10 days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel K. Beswick of Mill Valley are their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dempsey of Seattle, Wash. Dempsey will be athletics coach and teacher at Seattle University Preparatory School next month.

Continental Look

Look for Continental styling in boys' clothes. Suit jackets are rounded, trousers and lapels are narrower, cuffs are shorter. Vests are reversible, often with one side of paisley, to match coat linings.

WEDDING RITE ON SATURDAY

At a nuptial mass at high noon on Saturday at St. Raphael's Church, June Ann Soldavini and Duane DeVincenzi will exchange vows. The bride-elect, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Soldavini of San Rafael, has chosen her cousin, Carol Soldavini of San Francisco, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Joanna Geary of San Rafael and Janet Phinney of Fairfax.

All San Franciscans are the men in the bridal party. Mario Maso will be best man and Ronald DeVincenzi, brother of the future benedict, and Donald DeVincenzi, a cousin, will be the ushers. A reception at Carpenters Hall in San Rafael will follow the wedding.

The bride-elect, a Dominican graduate, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Charles Soldavini of San Rafael. Duane, a graduate of St. Ignatisu High School in San Francisco, is in his third year at California Polytechnic where he is studying aeronautical engineering. Mr. and Mrs. Angelo A. DeVincenzi of San Francisco are his parents.

Back From Vacation

Back from an exciting vacation in Southern California are the Don Mitchells of Little Reed Heights. In addition to Disneyland and Knott's Berry Farm the family visited Marineland where 10-year-old Kim and 8-year-old Scott were particularly entranced by the antics of the trained whales and dolphins.

Most exciting moment of the trip was a visit to the set where the show "Lassie" is telecast. The children met members of the cast and played with the canine star.

Junior Red Cross Council Is Formed

A council of Junior Gray Ladies and men has been organized in the past few weeks, according to Mrs. W. C. Detsch, director of the Junior Red Cross for Marin County.

The group will be composed of representatives from each hospital served by these young people, she said, and their discussion of problems relating to their service is expected to result in uniformity concerning such matters as uniforms, duties, hours, schedules and services.

The council will decide on special projects, such as parties in hospitals and special group events.

Also planned is an expanded service to include a program of aid to "home teachers," who bring classroom work to those who are forced to miss school because of prolonged illness. This will be known as the "Homebound Program," chairmanned by Linda Norwood.

Newly elected officers of the council are Patricia Guy, chairman; Susan Matsinger, vice chairman; Barbara Cassin, secretary; and Steve Detsch, treasurer. Steve will represent the boys enrolled in the program.

Representing the girls who serve at Sonoma State Hospital are Beverly Dismukes and Sharon Sterne; Lucas Valley is represented by Susan Matsinger; Marin Rehabilitation Hospital by Germaine Briggs, Carol Allrogen, Linda Pedersen, Patricia Guy and Bonnie Clark; Sun Valley School by Linda Norwood; and Arequipa Nursery by Barbara Cassin.

Senior representatives include Mesdames Robert Batty, Gray Lady chairman for Marin County; Verne MacFarlan, Gray Lady chairman for Sonoma State; James Allrogen, chairman for Marin Rehabilitation Hospital; and Mrs. Detsch.

Marilyn Truttman Weds Jim R. Smith

In a recent double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo, Marilyn Louise Truttman, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armin J. Truttman of Olema, became the bride of Jim R. Smith of Petaluma.

The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith of Petaluma.

The Rev. Edward Perry officiated for the 2:30 o'clock double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli and daisies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of white tulle and Chantilly lace. It was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, long sleeves and lace bodice. Her waist length veil of illusion fell from a Chantilly lact cap edged with tulle and embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible centered with white orchids and white roses.

Pat Sanderson of Inverness as maid of honor, wore a soft pink satin brocade sheath styled with an overskirt of matching silk organza. She had a spray of pink leaves in her hair and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and fern.

Gowned as the maid of honor were bridesmaids, Mary Louise Bloom of Olema and Eleanor Rosebraugh of Sonoma. They also carried shower bouquets of pink carnations ferns.

Irv Jensen of Petaluma was best man and ushers were Corky McDonald, Rudy Balli and Robert Taverna all of Petaluma.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Truttman wore a beige lace sheath with matching jacket. She had a beige hat and accessories and white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace sheath with crystal and white accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception for 250 guests followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

For a wedding trip to Northern California and Oregon, the bride wore a blue Italian silk sheath with a matching jacket and bone accessories. She had a white orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from Tomales High School and is attending Delores Premier Beauty School in San Rafael.

The benedict is a graduate of Petaluma High School and attended Santa Rosa Junior College. He is now assistant manager of Woolworth's in Westlake Village, San Francisco.

They will reside in Petaluma.

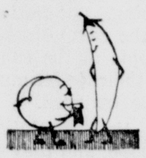

CUTTING THE CAKE at the reception which followed their recent marriage in the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith. The bride is the former Marilyn Truttman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armin Truttman of Olema. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith of Petaluma. The Rev. Edward Perry officiated at the ceremony. The newlyweds are residing in Petaluma. (Decker Studio photo.)

Bonnie Hubbard's KUPBOARD®
FUN WITH FOOD AND HELPFUL HINTS

A substantial salad makes the pleasantest kind of Sunday supper. Here's a favorite of ours: Shell macaroni, cooked and chilled, combined with WHITE STAR Tuna, diced apples, onion, avocado, lemon juice, mayonnaise. Send the WHITE STAR Tuna label and label from your mayonnaise to WHITE STAR, P.O. Box 53, San Francisco; you'll receive a 25 cent refund.

Roast chicken, golden-brown and beautiful, is a thrifty dish, these days. And to accompany it, another good buy: tender, succulent GREEN GIANT Peas, nestled in warm butter, with a bit of chopped mint or minced onion. GREEN GIANT Peas are picked, then canned and cooked, within minutes from the field—no wonder they taste so sweet and young and fresh!

"What's in the refrigerator, Mom? U-um! Olives!" Why not a bowl of big OBERTI Ripe Olives in the refrigerator in hot weather? They taste so refreshing, and they offer a most acceptable way to "fill the crannies" between meals. The big OBERTI Ripe Olives are always an excellent buy; more olive meat because pits are correspondingly smaller in the large olives.

★ Appetizer that pleases: Stuff crisp celery with softened cream cheese blended with crushed pineapple and a bit of horseradish.

Too hot to work? Here's something which tastes good and provides energy on the hottest day: add HERSHEY'S Instant Cocoa to cold milk (see the label). Sweeten and add a shake of cinnamon, stir well and top with whipped cream or ice cream. You'll relax as you drink it. The children will enjoy HERSHEY'S Instant Cocoa, hot or chilled, with their luncheon sandwiches.

Want to give the neighbors a wonderful time? Have an old-fashioned corn roast. Get plenty of sweet corn and KAISER Aluminum Foil, and some old-time records to set people singing. Seal each corn ear tightly in KAISER Quilted Foil, with a dollop of butter and a bit of garlic or chili. Roast it on the barbecue grill, and with it, have salad, cold meats, hot coffee, lots of fun!

When you buy your next bottle of PARSONS Sudsy Ammonia, don't be surprised if it looks green! It's the same reliable Sudsy you use for cleansing everything from dishes to Venetian blinds, tile and appliances. The new green Sudsy has a clean, pleasant scent of pine, deodorizing and refreshing the air wherever used. Ask for PARSONS Green Sudsy Ammonia.

★ Want my free Time-Temperature Foil-Roasting Guide? Send self-addressed envelope to Bonnie Hubbard, P.O. Box 4031, San Francisco.

Ever try to brighten an old slip with tint, and find streaks and splotches? Uneven dye penetration can be caused by the mineral film left by continued washings. Next time, use CALGON; recondition the fabric by soaking in hot water and this gentle water conditioner. CALGON penetrates the fabric and loosens embedded soap, leaving a clean surface so dye can work.

Scraps from the table are no better food for a dog than for a human being. Every pet deserves a good square meal, and HOLSUM Dog Food will supply just that. Like a "one-dish" meal on your own table, HOLSUM combines the flavors dogs enjoy—fresh meat, fish, ground bone cooked with vegetables and cereal, and vitamins added, to promote well-being and glossy fur.

That's all for now! See you next week!

We're Proud Of Boys Who Represented Us In Tourney

We like to win as much as the next guy does. But, thank goodness, we've learned long ago that a lost ballgame isn't the end of the world.

Our scrappy little North Marin Pony League All-Stars went back to Provo, Utah, carrying the banner of all of us into the regional playoffs. They held that banner, high, just as high when they went down to defeat as they did when they won.

Of course we would have liked to have seen our team victorious and now be planning a trip to the national playoffs. But it's much more important to us that those young athletes played the game hard and fair.

You might have noted in the Reporter's Notebook article by Robert Newcomb on this page last Wednesday that the Marin team's manager and coach insisted on sportsmanship from their charges.

"Before every game," said the manager, "we remind ourselves to conduct ourselves as gentlemen. I don't think we'll ever regret it."

Neither do we regret it. We're proud of the way our Marin boys played, proud of their attitude, and proud of the way they represented us.

We do regret the injury to Doug Matlock, who was hit in the head with a pitched ball and hospitalized in spite of the fact he was wearing a protective headgear. We pray he will recover completely from his injuries.

Reckless Walking To Death

Nine out of every 10 pedestrians killed each year have never been licensed to drive a car. So reports the National Safety Council.

The council points out that victims apparently do not have a knowledge of the minimum distance necessary for a car to stop in or have too much confidence in the ability of motorists to control their cars.

There is also the fact that those who are generally the least able physically to get out of the way of approaching vehicles are often the most careless in crossing streets and roads.

Youngsters are inclined to dart about heedlessly at times. But one would expect better judgment from older people. Yet, oldsters frequently take the crosswalks without the slightest look to right or left.

The mere existence of white lanes on the pavement are not in themselves a means of protection. As obvious as that is, it is something which many people fail to grasp.

There should be stiffer penalties for reckless walking.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

FIREMAN BREATHES LIFE INTO VICTIM

A Brooklyn fireman saved the life of a 35-year-old victim of burns and smoke poisoning by breathing into his mouth.

Although the man appeared to be dead, the determined fireman felt that there might be a spark left in what others regarded as a lifeless body.

Dragging the unconscious man into the hallway outside his second floor room, the fireman opened the victim's mouth and leaning over him proceeded to force air into his lungs.

This artificial respiration actually breathed life into the helpless man who was on the verge of death.

After several minutes he revived sufficiently to inhale oxygen. A little later he was taken to a nearby hospital and, though critically ill from smoke poison and a badly burned body, he still had a chance.

Do what you can to give new life to those who are despondent, bitter or whom others give up as impossible. It may be the turning point in their lives and may even mean the salvation of their souls.

"In God is my salvation and my glory: He is the God of my help, and my hope is in God." (Psalms 61:8)

Permit me, O loving Savior, to bring hope to the hopeless.

To Stranger New York Seems Cold, But Trouble Changes That

NEW YORK (AP) — The world's greatest city prides itself on its hospitality, but outsiders sometimes call it a cold hard city, a city of eight million strangers.

"You could commit a murder in the middle of the street," they say, "and nobody would interfere. Nobody would want to get involved."

It is true New York is pretty much a let-you-alone city. It is teeming with eight million people pursuing almost as many separate dreams.

A city so crowded has to have a leave-you-alone philosophy. Ootherwise they'd all be rubbing each other raw, hating each other's nearness.

But let trouble strike and the world's biggest city immediately becomes the world's biggest town, populated not by eight million strangers but by eight million buddies.

This happened during the famous blizzard of 1888, as the survivors have been loquaciously telling us for 71 years.

It happened again during the famous 25-inch snowfall of 1947. Then cheery bus drivers even drove their lumbering vehicles down side streets to let passengers off in front of their dwellings so they wouldn't have to wade through sidewalk drifts.

It happened again this week when a massive power failure for a few hours left 500,000 people in upper Manhattan iceless, lightless, televisionless — and dependent on each other for company.

THEY SHARED meals, candles, small talk.

"Everybody was suddenly friendly," said one man wonderingly. "I never saw anything like it in the three years I've lived here.

"I got acquainted with the fellow who lives in the apartment adjoining mine. Nice guy.

"I WENT TO a bar and sat next to a man I'd see there a hundred times. All he'd ever say before was, 'Pass the pretzels.' This time he was bubbling over with conversation, and we took turns buying the beers.

"It was a wonderful feeling. Now I think it might be a good idea if they turned off the electricity all over the city one night a month, so people would have to sit down and talk together and get to know each other."

Possible poisoning of participants in a scheduled clam feast at Pt. Reyes Station was averted by a quick-witted Sacramento woman who noticed that clams from Marin coast made her chickens ill. She promptly phoned the feasters, who called off their feed.

A committee of 14 Marinites asked permission to appear before the Railroad Commission to aid formulation of a plan to "provide Marin County with adequate transportation facilities" which the group considered "vital to the well-being and progress of the entire county."

Traffic Danger At High School

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Two years ago, you were gracious enough to publish a letter from me about the danger of the traffic at the corner passing San Rafael High School on Mission Avenue, and the authorities quickly tried to remedy the conditions by painting part of the sidewalks red for non-parking spaces.

Not only do the people still ignore these zones of nonparking, they become rude and insulting when some of us users of Mission Avenue, call their attention to their lack of obedience to the law.

We know and appreciate highly the checking up of the officers who patrol the area, but they cannot possibly be there all the time. With the traffic now greatly increased by the many people using Mission, due to the new developments in the neighborhood, it is becoming more and more dangerous to pass the high school. Especially now, with its swimming pool opened to the public.

The parents are less careful than the students, and also take their half of the avenue in the middle when they pull off or make the turn.

We all feel that either there is no parking on both sides of the avenue or no parking at all. It will not kill any one to walk a few yards but accidents surely will.

The police or yourself can call up or ring the bell at any home in the neighborhood and ask how one feels about this, and I vouch that every one will back me up on what I am writing you.

Terra Lindans Should Vote

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

This letter is a plea to the hundreds of fathers and mothers in Terra Linda to VOTE .. . on the bonds for the recreation program, Sept. 15. I am certain that if the election were held by the youngsters in this area the measure would win by a landslide!

We here in Terra Linda have wonderful opportunity to provide superior facilities for a year-round recreation department at a cost of about $3 a month — for the whole family.

As a former member of the swimming pool study committee, I learned, first of all, that it is not feasible for an elementary school district to provide much in the way of playgrounds.

Secondly, high school swimming pools are built for young adults, which means, for one thing, that depths are from three to twelve feet.

At this point, I should like to remind Terra Lindans that the directors of the Community Services District, and all the study committee members, are the same friends and neighbors who have been trying to solve our problems to make our community a better place in which to live. We owe a large debt of gratitude to all these volunteers who have given serious thought, and a great deal of time for the past two years, so that we can have parks, playgrounds, tennis courts, etc.

There is no question that this area needs recreational facilities. Let's not lose another year through apathy. Attend the C.S.D. meetings, and go to the polls, Tuesday, Sept. 15.

Fluoridation Foes Are Wrong

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I am distressed to see that the know-nothings are out again, blowing their bugles on the theme of fluoridation in the letters column of your paper.

Obviously they have learned nothing from their physicians or their dentists or, for that matter, from the news columns of your paper about the recommended uses of fluoride to cut down the decay rate of teeth.

They are wrong when they say that fluoridation of water as recommended by the American Medical Assn. and the American Dental Assn. is injurious to health; if fluoridated water were poisonous the population of San Francisco would be dead.

They are wrong when they say that fluoridation alters in any way the flavor of water; it is tasteless.

They are wrong when they say the body does not need fluoride as a nutrient, just as it needs iron and other chemicals.

They are wrong in calling fluoridation "socialized medicine"; it is not imposed by the state as is, say, education, but is decided by local vote as it will be in Marin in June, 1960.

They are wrong in asserting that fluoridation is said by its backers to be a cure-all; even the most optimistic reports say only that it reduces the rate of new decay by about 65 per cent. Proper brushing and diet are essential to good dental health.

Heaven only knows where these medieval minds get their hilariously erroneous information. I am, however, delighted to say that they could not halt the spread of fluoridation to another 4.2 pct. of the U.S. population in 1958, as detailed in Public Health Reports of May, 1959.

May they all keep their teeth long enough to see the benefits of fluoridation embrace the whole population.

There's a tall, tall tale told out Louisville way about a red-headed farmer named Stewart who married a gal whose hair was even redder than his. In time they were blessed with eight red-headed children. Asked by the county sheriff how he was getting along, Stewart admitted, "I got no cause for complaint. But ef it warn't for the woodpeckers, feedin' the young'uns might be a problem. Ye see, them danged birds think every thing's that got a red head is another woodpecker. So we just set the young'uns out on the rail fence and go in and take a nap. When we get back, them danged peckers have fed 'em all day!"

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT K. NEWCOMB

Being School Secretary Is More Than Being Pleasant To People

Part time secretaries at Novato's several schools do more than answer phones and sharpen pencils.

Novato school trustees, who recently approved a 10-cent-an-hour pay boost for the ladies, first heard from Supt. W. J. J. Smith that the secretary's role has been expanded in recent years.

Originally, secretary's duties required no special skill beyond being of pleasant disposition. Today however, she is no mere receptionist.

Now she also takes messages, gives information of school matters to the inquiring public, keeps school record, confers with parents about student absences, administers minor first aid, handles registration of students, assists the principal with clerical work and takes an annual text book inventory.

THE EDITOR of Hamilton Air Force Base's weekly newspaper, Scramble, M/Sgt. Pierce W. Timberlake, has been presented with a certificate elevating him to the rank of colonel.

The only hitch is it's with the "Confederate Air Force" and so far, at least, it hasn't encouraged even a half-hearted salute out of any of his fellow non-coms.

"Greeting to yo all," states the citation. "Know ye that in recognition of your ability to consume huge quantities of black-eye peas, turnip greens, sow belly, hush puppies, pot likker, grits and good old corn squeesins, you are hereby appointed to the rank of colonel."

In order to keep the commission, Timberlake must "praise the glories of the Deep South, never take off from the north end of a runway and remember that 'damnyankee' is one word."

The certificate is posted in an honorable position on the wall — midway between plaques denoting the Scramble's first place awards in WADF newspaper competition 1957 and 1958.

PRACTICE MAKES perfect. That's one cliche Novato Fire Chief George J. Cavallero will buy.

He got a chance last week to give his smokeeaters a taste of the real thing when owners of the Patterson ranch offered an old residence there for use by the fire district.

Firemen touched a match to the building and then when the place was ablaze entered with hoses spraying.

"There's nothing like real fire-fighting experience," says the chief. "Smoke in the belly and the heat of flames are things you can't get out of books. When the real thing comes, it's too late for training — there may be a life in there to drag out."

AS AN IMPARTIAL and we hope objective reporter on the hot issue of incorporation for Novato, it seems not out of order to wish the proponents well in their latest pursuit.

The Novato Home Rule Committee, spurred on by the eye-opening fact that 1,000 of the 2,500 property owners who signed petitions calling for an election were not registered voters, are gearing for a campaign to encourage voter registration.

That's one move, it would seem, that calls for bi-partisan backing.

CASTRO'S CUBA TODAY

There's Still Hope If Fidel Goes To Work

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

HAVANA (AP) — The development of Fidel Castro's revolution has its hopeful side.

The touching, unquestioning faith of the campesinos—the little people of the countryside — in their leader must be seen to be believed.

To them the revolution means only hope, and they — not Havana — represent Cuba They are people who, like the vast majority of Cubans, depend on the land for a living.

Many now live in hovels, eking out an existence for their families. They have been told this is their revolution — a revolution of the farmers. If the promises are not fulfilled, their disillusion will be terrible.

THE PEASANTS place great hopes in the future of agrarian reform and cooperative farming. Competent economists say there is no reason why the program shouldn't succeed with careful, intelligent direction.

The National Institute of Agrarian Reform has outlawed the huge federal landholdings and is intent on chopping up the big farms into smallholders' plots for distribution among the landless tenants, sharecroppers and squatters.

The landholders, however, have given out with anguished protests coupled with dire predictions about the future of Cuba's economy, which depends mainly on sugar.

Proponents defend the law, pointing out that such measures have worked in other countries — including Japan under the U.S. occupation.

AGRARIAN REFORM undoubtedly has a tough, uphill path. So far the institute has equivalent of 20 million dollars recovered from associates of former President Fulgencio Batista and 13 million from voluntary contributions. Much more is still needed to pay for expropriated lands and finance prospective cooperatives.

The experiment is unquestionably a big job for the new, inexperienced regime. But if the enthusiasm of the peasants means anything its prospects are good.

Land redistribution is only one of the many enormous economic problems facing a nation pillaged by its former regime.

Uncertainity under Fidel Castro's revolutionary government has led to a sharp drop in private and foreign investment. This has led to a near standstill in the construction industry and to consequent unemployment. Roughly half a million Cubans are jobless out of a total work force of 2,400,000.

TO TAKE UP the slack, the government has embarked on a public works program and deficit spending. This is a political necessity and probably will be difficult to stop when it becomes necessary for Castro to ask his people to tighten their belts in an austerity program later on. He is reported only recently aware of the dangers of inflation in the current situation.

The critical time for Castro is still months ahead — perhaps, in 1960. That's when his promises fall due.

As one habanero put it, "Fidel has shown us roses, but unless he waters the plants they'll die."

The people have been promised thousands of new housing units by the end of 1959. The peasants have been promised their first land before the end of the year. The government has promised jobs for all.

CUBA'S PRESENT economic picture is spotty, but it is not yet frightening, and there is a more than even chance it will pull through despite gloomy predictions.

The road ahead, however, is not easy. If the Cuban revolution is going to succeed, Fidel Castro will have to climb down off that cloud and go to work in earnest.

CHILDHOOD SWEETHEARTS—Married 50 years Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kandela are shown at work in the garden of their Woodacre home which he built in 1955. A Seaman for most of his life, "Cap," as he is known to his friends, brought the outrigger canoe shown in the left of the picture from New Guinea. The couple first met as 10 year-old school children in Berlin, Germany. (Independent-Journal photo)

WED 50 YEARS

Couple Disagree As To Who Picked Whom

Each member of a Woodacre couple, who will have been married 50 years Friday, claims to hame been the one who started the whole affair when they were 10-year-old neighbors in Berlin, Germany.

Emil Kandela insists he saw his wife, Wally, walking to school one day and decided she "looked pretty good."

"That was it," he says with a touch of typical male smugness.

According to Wally, he had been chosen long before the day he finally got up enough nerve to speak to her and buy her a nickel's worth of macaroon tarts.

"His family lived across the courtyard of the same apartment house where my family lived," she confessed. "My two sisters and I had watched Emil and his two brothers for a long time and had decided among ourselves which one we liked best.

"I picked him."

The final catch at the altar was not so simple.

Emil, a footloose youngster, shipped out as a deck boy on a four-masted schooner and it was three years before she saw him again.

"Another year or two, maybe, and we will get married," he promised.

The year stretched into four while the young, blue-eyed adventurer's travels took him to Australia, the Hawaiian Islands and the Dutch East Indies.

Not one to wait forever, the bride-to-be finally took matters into her own hands and left Germany for San Francisco with her mother's blessing, 1,000 marks, her papa's diamond ring, four trunks and a 40-pound down mattress.

The couple were married on Aug. 21, 1909, in a house which still stands at 2037 Divisadero street.

"Cap," as he is known today to his Woodacre friends and neighbors, made his last trip to sea in 1945 after having briefly returned to the ships during World War II.

In 1955 he built the home they now live in at Garden way and Oak Grove.

During their 50 years of marriage, the couple have raised two children, been in the lamp shade and decorating business and have, according to them both, "lived a good life."

They are content these days to take life easy in their garden, keep busy with the Woodacre Improvement Club and look to more years as happy as those past.

The other day, looking over a scrapbook of snapshots, Cap came across a picture of himself paddling a rubber canoe he takes out on weekends.

"It's a long way from the days of wooden ships and iron men to a rubber paddle boat," he said.

Form For County Claims Proposed

Should Marin County have a procedure whereby citizens who believe they have a claim against the county can easily file it?

That was the question that came yesterday out of a proposed rejection by the board of supervisors of a $25 claim for a torn coat.

Art Weidner of San Rafael had claimed his coat was damaged when it was caught on a desk in the county courthouse.

The county's insurance carriers notified the board it has a $50 deductible policy and thus the $25 claim did not come under the policy coverage. The county counsel then recommended to the board that they reject the claim on the basis it is not a "verified claim."

"We're asked to deny this claim just because we don't know anything about it," stormed Chairman Walter R. Castro. "I think we should have some standard form that anyone who has a claim against the county can fill out and know he's going to get a hearing."

He said he had heard of cases where a claim had been referred to the insurance carriers who had "carried it around" until the time for filing a "verified claim" had passed and then rejected the claim because it wasn't verified.

County Clerk George S. Jones said the county at one time had such claim forms but that they had been discarded because the insurance carriers had objected.

The matter, including Weidner's claim, was continued one week when the board is scheduled to meet with Walter Carter, the county's insurance adviser.

L.A. Judge Named To High Tribunal

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday nominated Justice Thomas P. White of Los Angeles to the state supreme court.

White, presiding justice of the state district court of appeal, will fill the vacancy created by the recent death of associate supreme court justice John W. Schenk. White is 70.

The governor said he is sending White's name to the judicial qualifications commission for its required approval.

Richardson Bay Board Moves To End Dispute

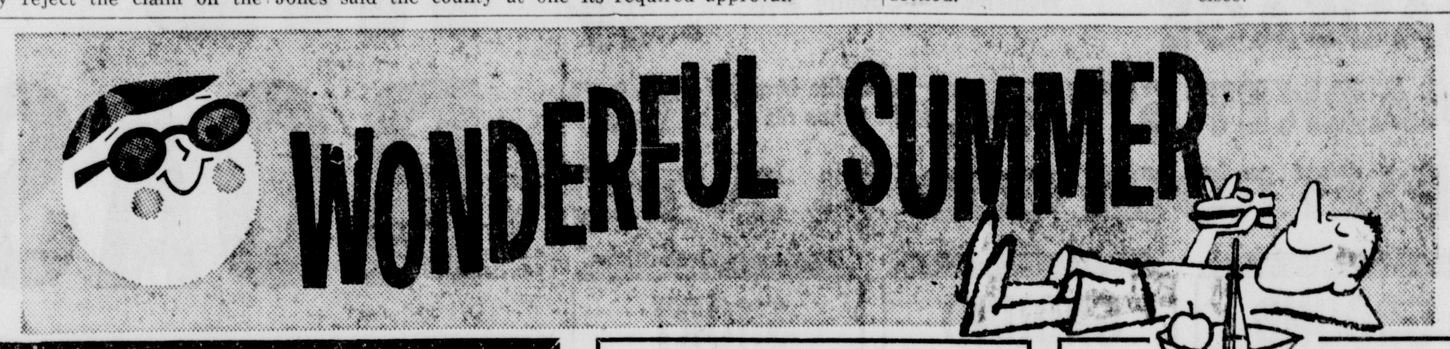

Directors of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District concluded a major step toward settling a three-way two-year-old controversy Monday night by agreeing to provide temporary sewage service to lots in Harbor Estates which have already been sold.

The legal snarl involves the Marin Land Co., developers of the project, as well as the county and the sanitary district, and concerns damage to the sewer lines. Pending legal action is designed to fix responsibility for the repairs.

The agreement reached Monday night is temporary in that the district agrees to provide service only to lots sold thus far, until the pending suits are settled.

The board also prepared three annexation petitions for execution. One covered lands of Tiburon residence properties above Hawthorne terrace as requested by developer Kurt Heath. Another involved Little Reed Park, which had been requested by C. W. Lemming and Neil A. Miller, residents. The third involved the Westminster Presbyterian Church for its proposed new location on Tiburon highway opposite Bel Aire.

Stanley G. Bennett of 270 Karen way, Bel Aire, was appointed to the directorship left vacant by resignation of Dr. Robert C. West, who has moved from the district. The terms runs until 1962. Bennett is a purchasing agent in San Francisco.

LATIN EXAM PASSED BY DRAKE GRAD

A Sir Francis Drake High School graduate passed an advanced placement examination in Latin without taking special preparatory courses, according to information received by Principal Harold Allison from the College Entrance Examination Board.

The report said that Christopher M. Black, 138 Woodland drive, San Anselmo, a 1959 Drake graduate, was one of 69 students in the United States now eligible to take advanced Latin courses and possibly receive college credit from the tests.

Allison said Black was the second Drake student to take such an examination. Martha L. Collins, 219 Los Angeles boulevard, San Anselmo, a 1958 graduate, passed the test in Spanish and was consequently offered advanced credit by the University of California.

The Drake principal said it was "exceptional" for a student to pass one of the subject matter tests without having had special preparatory courses.

Doll Show Set In San Rafael

A citywide doll show with a buggy parade and playground activities will be held Friday for girls 12 and under, sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation and Park Department.

Entries may be registered at the Albert Park game room between 10 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Friday. Each girl will be allowed to enter one doll for each of eight judging categories, and one buggy for all.

The categories are oldest doll, largest doll, smartest doll, most beautiful doll, best bridal doll, best character doll, best homemade doll, story book doll, and best buggy.

Judges for the contest will be Mrs. Alice Cooper of Doll City, Walter Zurcher of the San Rafael Toy Shop and Mrs. Donald B. Robinson, 26 Inverness street.

Development Map Given Approval

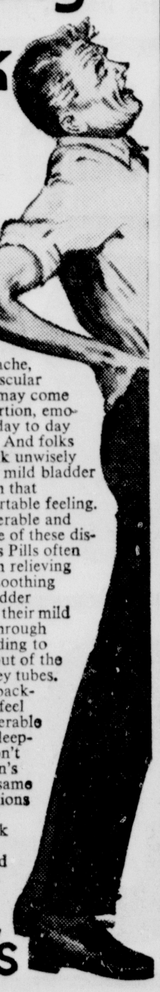

Approval, with some exceptions, was voted a revised tentative map of the Oakwood Valley Estates by the Marin County Planning Commission Monday. Leo Epp is subdivider.

The project would permit creation of additional multiple residential districts. It comprises about 17 acres.

Creekside drive is to be a 60-foot right-of-way from Memphis drive to Tennessee Valley road, and a mostly stream-bed area too small for lots between Tennessee Valley road and the boundary of Ranch F may be offered for dedication as part of the right-of-way.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D.
Guidance Counsellor

Don't Ignore Your Child's Great Need For Discipline

Do you discipline your children? Give them guidance, along with love? I hope so. Let me tell you about Bill. His folks did not discipline him.

Bill, at 17, is in a juvenile jail. He's spoiled, conceited, headstrong. He can't take orders. An officer stopped him for reckless driving. He lowered his head to write out a ticket. Bill hit him with a wrench.

I've known Bill all his life. His parents idolized him. They thought he could do no wrong. They excused his temper tantrums, calling them cute. They ignored his rudeness. They never said no. They gave him everything he wanted. I warned them, but they wouldn't listen. Now they're sorry. Probably their son will be in and out of jails all his life.

Bill received love from his parents. But love alone is not enough. He never learned the difference between right and wrong. He never learned self-discipline. His parents never enforced any limits on his conduct. Bill learned to live by his selfish, violent impulses. Now he has no conscience. He wasn't sorry for having hit the officer. "It was his own fault," Bill said, "for stopping me."

Does Bill make you shudder? Here are the lessons he teaches: (1) Give your children consistent guidance. Set up clear rules. Help them see what is good and bad, right and wrong. Teach them. (2) Insist on obedience, responsibility, respect. Do it in a kindly way. Brutality doesn't help. When punishment is necessary, use the mildest possible form. (3) Expand their freedoms as they grow older. (4) Underline everything with love and companionship. Then you won't produce another Bill.

PARENTS' FORUM

(Q) "Do you know a good book to guide teenagers?"

(A) There are many. One of the best is "How to be a Successful Teenager," by Karl Menninger and others.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Aug. 19, the 231st day of the year, with 134 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is in its full phase.

The morning star is Mercury.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

On this date in history:

In 1812, the American warship Constitution won its famous victory over the British Guerriere to give the United States one of its greatest morale-boosters in history.

In 1870, Bernard Baruch was born at Camden, S. C.

In 1871, Orville Wright—first man to pilot a heavier-than-air flying machine—was born.

In 1918, a musical comedy about Army life opened on Broadway. Written by Sgt. Irving Berlin and called "Yip Yaphank," the score included "Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning" and "Mandy."

In 1934, citizens of Germany voted overwhelmingly in favor of making Adolf Hitler successor to President Paul Von Hindenberg.

In 1945, Lieut. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, the hero of Corregidor, was found safe in Manchuria.

A thought for today: Irving Berlin wrote: "You've got to get up, you've got to get up, you've got to get up this morning."

Mill Valley Tax Rate To Be Set At Meet Tonight

Formal cation on setting the city's tax rate and determining the revenue which will be required from property taxes is scheduled for tonight's meeting of the Mill Valley City Council.

The council agreed 3-1 at its Aug. 5 meeting that a $2.09 tax rate would be required. The dissenting vote was cast by Councilman George W. Blackwell.

Also on the agenda is continued discussion of the proposed small craft harbor.

Saroyan Play Will Launch Season For Little Theater

The calendar of plays to be presented by the Sausalito Little Theater for the coming year and tryouts for the opening drawing were announced today by president Elaine Mitchell.

The season will open Oct. 2 with William Saroyan's three-act comedy "Time of Your Life," continuing weekends for the month of October.

Tryouts have been set for Aug. 27 at 7:30 p.m. at the theater.

To be directed by John Brebner, "Time of Your Life" has a cast of 22 men and five women, all of whom described by director Brebner as "interesting, well-rounded characters."

The scene of the play is a San Francisco waterfront bar in 1939.

"We hope to have a large turnout for the tryouts," Brebner said. "To give the play an authentic background, we hope someone will give or loan us a jukebox and pinball machine appropriate to a 1939 bar."

Second of the production will be "Thieves Carnival," by Jean Anouilh, scheduled for Nov. 20 to Dec. 19. It will be directed by David Sachs.

Opening Feb. 6 will be Arthur Miller's "Crucible," scheduled to run through March 5. Earle Marsh of Mill Valley will direct.

The final drawing of the season will be "Three Men on a Horse" by George Abbott, directed by Vincent Porcaro. It is scheduled to open April 8 and run through May 7.

All performances are set for Friday and Saturday nights at 8:30 o'clock.

Highway Building Costs Show Rise

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Highway construction costs in California during the second quarter of 1959 rose 25 per cent over the first quarter, it was reported today.

The state Division of Highways said the construction cost index took a sharp upswing to 270.4 points, the second highest mark since the index was started in 1940.

The division said the index rise was not believed "truly indicative" of a major increase in construction costs.

The boost was attributed to unusually keen competition among bidders during the first quarter and to the smaller size of work projects in the second quarter.

Sausalito Citizen Group Seeks Data

Directors of the Sausalito Citizens Council at their regular meeting last week decided to develop some factual data on the proposed general plan for the city, to be ready prior to the Sept. 1 city council meeting.

Corresponding Secretary Carl W. Spring said the directors were concerned about references to the plan as being a "straightjacket", made during the last city council meeting.

Citizen council directors also changed their meeting night from the second Tuesday to the second Monday of each month, at 8 p.m. at the home of President Robert E. McCabe.
